

1966/180

THE TELEX REGULATIONS 1963, AMENDMENT NO. 1

BERNARD FERGUSSON, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington this 10th day of October 1966

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. KEITH HOLYOAKE, C.H., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Post Office Act 1959, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Telex Regulations 1963, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Telex Regulations 1963* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2. The principal regulations are hereby amended by revoking regulation 11, and substituting the following regulation:

“11. (1) A subscriber shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Minister, assign or dispose of his contract or assign, dispose of, or part with any benefit or advantage under it.

“(2) Except as provided in subclause (3) of this regulation, a telex installation shall be used only with respect to the affairs of the subscriber.

“(3) Upon application being made in writing on a form supplied for the purpose by the Director-General, the Minister may grant to any subscriber a licence to send and receive telex traffic on behalf of such other persons as may be specified therein.

“(4) Each such licence issued shall be subject to the conditions specified therein.

“(5) For each such licence issued there shall be payable an annual licence fee of £10 together with a charge of £5 per annum in respect of each person on whose behalf the subscriber is licensed to send and receive telex calls.”

3. The principal regulations are hereby further amended by revoking regulation 26, and substituting the following regulation:

"26. (1) One free entry shall be published in the telex directory in respect of the following:

"(a) Each subscriber's telex installation:

"(b) Each person on whose behalf the subscriber is licensed to send or receive telex calls.

"(2) Each such entry shall be limited to three lines of print and shall consist of the name or firm name of the person entitled to the listing or his nominee, his business, his address, and the telex number or answer-back code. In the case of an entry which the Department deems sufficiently descriptive, any further description necessitating an additional line or lines of print in excess of three shall be inserted only on payment of the charge prescribed in regulation 27 hereof for an extra entry."

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations authorise the issue of a licence to telex subscribers permitting them to handle telex messages on behalf of certain other persons.

The regulations also prescribe the entries to be inserted in the telex directory in respect of each telex installation.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.
Date of notification in Gazette: 13 October 1966.
These regulations are administered in the Post Office.
