

THE WAGE ADJUSTMENT REGULATIONS 1974
AMENDMENT NO. 2

DENIS BLUNDELL, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington this 18th day of November
1974

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. W. E. ROWLING PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Economic Stabilisation Act 1948, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title—These regulations may be cited as the Wage Adjustment Regulations 1974, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Wage Adjustment Regulations 1974* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. Removal of anomalies—Regulation 7 of the principal regulations (as amended by regulation 3 of the Wage Adjustment Regulations 1974, Amendment No. 1) is hereby further amended by adding the following subclauses:

“(7) Where the effect of any order which the Commission proposes to make under this regulation would be to vary any instrument in the form of an agreement between the parties, they shall be entitled to appear before and be heard by the Commission on the issue before any order is made by the Commission.

“(8) If the Commission, after hearing the parties, proposes to make an order varying the instrument, it shall refer the instrument back to the parties for reconsideration before making any order.

*S.R. 1974/144
Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1974/252

“(9) Where under subclause (8) of this regulation any instrument is referred back to the parties for reconsideration, then, if the instrument, whether with or without any variation, is resubmitted to the Commission under this regulation, subclauses (7) and (8) of this regulation shall not apply on that resubmission.”

P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations amend regulation 7 of the Wage Adjustment Regulations 1974 (relating to the removal of anomalies). The effect of the amendment is as follows:

- (a) If under regulation 7 the Industrial Commission proposes to make an order varying an instrument in the form of an agreement between the parties, the parties must be given an opportunity of being heard by the Commission before the order is made.
- (b) If after hearing the parties the Commission still proposes to make an order varying the instrument, it is to refer the instrument back to the parties for reconsideration before it makes an order under regulation 7.
- (c) If after the instrument has been reconsidered by the parties it is resubmitted to the Commission (whether with or without any variation), the Commission may deal with the application without hearing the parties further.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 21 November 1974.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Labour.
