EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 November 1984, increase the levy that, after being paid to the New Zealand Wheat Board by growers of wheat, is paid to United Wheatgrowers (N.Z.) Limited to be used by that company for the purpose of instituting and carrying out compensation schemes and entering into insurance contracts to protect wheatgrowers against loss or damage to crops.

That levy, as set in 1980, is computed at the rate of 52 cents for every $100 of the purchase price of the wheat and any money payable to the grower by way of storage increment payments. That levy is increased by these regulations to a rate of 82.5 cents for every such $100.
