P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations vary the wage freeze, which continues until the close of the 22nd day of June 1983, by making further provision for the making of instruments relating to major projects and for the making of instruments superseding expired instruments not renewed in the 1981-1982 wage round. To come within this exception an instrument must be made after the commencement of the principal regulations on 23 June 1982 and must implement a complete settlement.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.
Date of notification in Gazette: 20 July 1982.
