“6AC. Nothing in regulation 5 or regulation 5A of these regulations applies in respect of any instrument which is made after the commencement of these regulations and which increases any rate of remuneration of any person or the amount of any reimbursing payment payable to any person if—

“(a) The person is—

“(i) A person employed in the overseas service (within the meaning of the Foreign Affairs and Overseas Service Act 1983); or

“(ii) A serviceman (within the meaning of section 2 (1) of the Defence Act 1971); or

“(iii) An expert appointed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; or

“(iv) A State employee working or serving outside New Zealand; or

“(v) A State employee who is outside New Zealand either under an exchange scheme or for the purposes of carrying out study, training, or research; and

“(b) The remuneration or reimbursing payment is in respect of the person’s employment or duties outside New Zealand; and

“(c) All the increases effected by the instrument are increases arising from factors external to the economy of New Zealand.”

P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 6 March 1984, vary the wage freeze.

The effect of the regulations is to exempt from the wage freeze instruments that effect increases in the rates of remuneration of, or the amounts of the reimbursing payments payable to, certain classes of Government employees who carry out their duties outside New Zealand.

The exemption applies only where the increase arises from factors external to the economy of New Zealand.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 6 March 1984.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Labour.
