An ORDINANCE to prevent the influx of Criminals into the Province of Otago.

BE IT ENACTED by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago by and with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof as follows :

1. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or any constable at any time after the passing of this Ordinance having reasonable cause to suspect that any person has at any time been found guilty of any capital or transportable felony by a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or any British Possession other than New Zealand and that his sentence or sentences have not expired or that he has not received an unconditional pardon and has at any time subsequent to the first day of August 1861 come into this Province forthwith and without any warrant for such purpose to cause such suspected person to be apprehended and taken before any two Justices of the Peace to be dealt with as hereinafter mentioned: Provided that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to take bail for the appearance of such suspected person before such Justices in such sum and with or without such sureties as such Justice may deem expedient.

Suspected persons may be arrested.

Punishment on suspected persons being convicted.

2. It shall be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace before whom any such suspected person shall have been brought on proof that such person has come into the Province of Otago contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance to convict him thereof and at their discretion either to take bail that such person shall leave New Zealand within ten days after his conviction or to cause such person to be conveyed in custody to the country or possession from whence he came or to sentence such person if a male to be kept to hard labour with or without irons on the roads or other public works of the said Province for any period not exceeding six calendar months or if a female to be imprisoned with or without hard labour in any gaol for any period not exceeding four calendar months.

Forfeiture of property.

3. All property found upon or in the possession of any such suspected person as aforesaid shall upon his apprehension be seized and detained and in the event of his being convicted and sentenced as aforesaid shall at the discretion of the convicting Justices be forfeited and sold.

Additional punishment for convicted persons remaining after expiration of sentence.

4. Any person sentenced as aforesaid to hard labour or imprisonment who shall remain in the Province of Otago for three months after the termination of such sentence shall be liable to be again similarly apprehended and sentenced and so on from time to time as often as he shall so remain.

Penalty for harbouring.

5. Any person who shall harbour or conceal any other person whom he shall know or believe to have come into or remained in the said Province contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or be imprisoned in any gaol house of correction or other prison in the said Province for any period not exceeding six calendar months.

Master liable if persons improperly brought to Otago.

6. Any master mariner or other person commanding navigating or sailing any vessel for the trip or voyage when such vessel shall bring to any port or place in the said Province any such suspected person and known to such master to be suspected shall upon conviction thereof before any two Justices of the Peace for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or imprisonment for any time not exceeding six calendar months or to both at the discretion of the said Justices.

Power to grant search warrants.

7. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace having information on oath that any person who has arrived in the said Province contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance is harboured in any house or other place within the said Province to grant a general search warrant to any constable for such person and it shall be lawful for any such constable in virtue of such general search warrant to break enter and search by day or by night any dwelling-house tenement or other place wherein such person may be suspected to be concealed and to apprehend any person whom such constable shall have reasonable cause for suspecting to have arrived or remained in the said Province contrary to the provisions hereof and also to apprehend all persons found in or about such dwelling-house tenement or other place whom such constable shall have reasonable grounds for suspecting and believing to have knowingly harboured and concealed such suspected person and all persons found and apprehended as aforesaid shall be forthwith taken before any Justice of the Peace to be dealt with as herein provided.

8. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Constable to enter on board any vessel and having reasonable cause to suspect that any person having been found guilty and being under sentence as aforesaid is on board such vessel to search any and every part thereof and apprehend any person found therein contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance.
