Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on the 14th day after the date of its notification in the Gazette, declares the countries listed in the Schedule to be parties to the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards 1958.

For the purposes of the Arbitration (Foreign Agreements and Awards) Act 1982 the order, while it remains in force, is conclusive evidence that the countries so listed are parties to that Convention. This means that an award made in arbitration proceedings in any of those countries may be enforced in New Zealand in accordance with that Act.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 24 March 1983.
