Part 2 Work account levy

8 Calculation of Work Account levy payable by employers and private domestic workers

The Work Account levy payable by employers and private domestic workers is calculated using the following formula:

$$(c \div 100) \times d$$

where—

c is,—

- (a) in respect of an employer, the amount of earnings paid to the employer's employees in the tax year prescribed in regulation 5(1)(a), (b), or (c), whichever applies; or
  - (b) in respect of a private domestic worker, the amount of earnings derived by the private domestic worker in the tax year prescribed in regulation 5(1)(a), (b), or (c), whichever applies
- d is the rate for the Work Account levy in Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 (as relevant) that applies to the classification unit in which the employer or private domestic worker is classified.

9 Calculation of Work Account levy payable by self-employed persons

The Work Account levy payable by self-employed persons is calculated using the following formula:

$$(c \div 100) \times d$$

where—

c is—

- (a) the amount of earnings derived by the self-employed person as a self-employed person in the tax year prescribed in regulation 5(1)(a), (b), or (c), whichever applies; or
- (b) if regulation 7(1) applies, $36,816 minus the earnings received by the person as an employee in the tax year prescribed in regulation 5(1)(a), (b), or (c), whichever applies

d is the rate for the Work Account levy in Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 (as relevant) that applies to the classification unit in which the self-employed person is classified.

10 Work Account levy subject to adjustments

The Work Account levy payable by—

- (a) an employer is subject to any upward adjustments under Part 4; and
- (b) an employer, a self-employed person, or a private domestic worker is subject to any adjustments under Part 1 or 2 of the Accident Compensation (Experience Rating) Regulations 2019.

Part 3*Persons purchasing compensation*11 Application of this Part

This Part applies to—

- (a) a self-employed person who purchases weekly compensation from, and enters into an agreement with, the Corporation under sections 208 and 209 of the Act; and
- (b) a shareholder-employee who purchases weekly compensation from, and enters into an agreement with, the Corporation under section 190 of the Act.

12 Corporation to determine compensation levy

- (1) The compensation levy payable by a person to whom this Part applies must be paid at the levy rate stated in Schedule 3 or Schedule 4 (as relevant) for the classification unit in which the person is classified.

- (2) The Corporation must calculate the compensation levy payable by the person using the following formula:

$$g + h$$

where—

g is the amount of base compensation levy calculated according to regulation 13

h is either—

- (a) the amount of the non-abatement part of the compensation levy calculated under regulation 14, if that regulation applies; or
- (b) zero, if regulation 14 does not apply.

- (3) The compensation levy payable by a person under subclause (1) is subject to any adjustments under Part 1 of the Accident Compensation (Experience Rating) Regulations 2019.

13 Base compensation levy

The amount of base compensation levy payable by a person to whom this Part applies is calculated using the following formula:

$$(j \times k) \div 100$$

where—

j is the agreed level of compensation purchased by the person under section 208 of the Act, adjusted to an annual equivalent figure k is the appropriate levy rate stated in Schedule 3 or Schedule 4 (as relevant).

14 Non-abatement part

- (1) This regulation applies only to a person to whom this Part applies who purchases weekly compensation under an agreement that does not make provision for the reduction, or progressive reduction, of the agreed level of weekly compensation in circumstances set out in the agreement.

- (2) The amount of the non-abatement part of the compensation levy payable by a person to whom this regulation applies is calculated using the following formula:

$$(j \times p) \div 100$$

where—

j is the same amount as item j in the formula set out in regulation 13

p is the appropriate non-abatement part rate stated in Schedule 3 or Schedule 4 (as relevant).

15 Self-employed person must pay either compensation levy or Work Account levy

Nothing in these regulations limits or affects the obligation of a self-employed person to pay the Work Account levy for any period for which no agreement under section 208 of the Act has effect in relation to the person.

Part 4*Upward adjustments to Work Account levy based on employers' safety management practices*16 Auditors

- (1) Audits for the purposes of this Part must be conducted by an auditor approved by the chief executive for the purpose.
- (2) The chief executive must not approve a person to conduct audits of employers' safety management practices for the purposes of these regulations unless satisfied that the person has the qualifications and experience to undertake the audits.

17 Upward adjustments

- (1) The Corporation must make an upward adjustment of 50% if an upward audit discloses that an employer's safety management practices fail to meet the standard required by the upward audit tool approved for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) An upward adjustment made by the Corporation under section 180(2) of the Act must be 50%.
- (3) The following decisions are decisions of the Corporation:
  - (a) a decision under subclause (1) that an upward audit discloses that an employer's safety management practices fail to meet the standard required by the upward audit tool:
  - (b) a decision under section 180(2) of the Act to adjust an employer's Work Account levy upward without the completion of an audit.

18 Basis of upward adjustments

An upward adjustment is based on an audit of an employer's safety management practices conducted—

- (a) at a worksite or worksites selected by the Corporation; and
- (b) on a reasonable day or on reasonable days determined by the Corporation; and
- (c) by an auditor chosen by the Corporation; and
- (d) in accordance with the upward audit tool.

19 Further audits after upward adjustment

- (1) If an upward adjustment has taken effect in a tax year, the Corporation must arrange a further upward audit of the employer to be conducted in every later tax year until an upward audit discloses that the employer's safety management practices meet the standard required by the upward audit tool.
- (2) Each further upward audit must be completed on a reasonable day or on reasonable days determined by the Corporation after considering—
  - (a) the seriousness of the risks faced by the employer's employees; and
  - (b) how much time the employer reasonably needs to address problems with the employer's safety management practices identified in the most recent upward audit.
- (3) The Corporation must not, under subclause (1), arrange for more than 1 upward audit of an employer's safety management practices to be conducted in any tax year.

20 Application of upward adjustment to levy

- (1) If an upward adjustment has taken effect in a tax year, the adjustment must be applied to the Work Account levy payable by the employer—
  - (a) for that tax year; and
  - (b) for each following tax year in which—
    - (i) an upward audit discloses that the employer's safety management practices fail to meet the standard required by the upward audit tool; or
    - (ii) no upward audit of the employer is conducted.
- (2) If in any tax year an audit under regulation 19 discloses that an employer's safety management practices meet the standard required by the upward audit tool, the upward adjustment to the Work Account levy payable by the employer ceases to apply for that tax year.

21 Administration of upward adjustments

- (1) If in any tax year, after an employer has paid the Work Account levy for that tax year (including the applicable upward adjustment to that levy), a further upward audit under regulation 19 discloses that the employer's safety management practices meet the standard required by the upward audit tool, the Corporation—
  - (a) must pay the amount of the upward adjustment to the employer—
    - (i) if the employer so requests; and
    - (ii) if, after the adjustment, the employer's account is more than $100 in credit; or

- (b) must credit the amount of the adjustment to the employer's account to be offset against payment of the Work Account levy for the next period.
- (2) The Corporation may adjust the amount of monthly instalments of the Work Account levy payable by an employer if the Corporation applies or ceases to apply an upward adjustment under regulation 20.

Part 5

Miscellaneous

22 Collection of Work Account levy

The Work Account levy for a tax year is payable in advance and may be collected by the Corporation at any time on or after the commencement of that year.

23 Interest rate on Work Account levy overpaid

The interest rate payable on amounts that are refundable to employers under section 173(2)(a) of the Act is 6% per year.

24 Levy exclusive of GST

The amount of any levy derived by applying the appropriate levy rate set out in the relevant schedule, and making any adjustments under Part 4, is exclusive of any goods and services tax payable on that levy.

25 Amounts of levy exempt from payment

For the purposes of section 244 of the Act, the relevant exempt amount for any invoice that is issued to an employer, a private domestic worker, or a self-employed person for the purposes of the Act and that includes the Work Account levy is set,—

- (a) in the case of an employer or a private domestic worker, at $20; and
- (b) in the case of a self-employed person, at $40.

26 Continuation of adjustments

- (1) This regulation applies to an employer or a self-employed person if, in relation to that employer or self-employed person,—
  - (a) the Corporation has made an upward adjustment under the regulations revoked by regulation 27 or any corresponding revoked regulations made under the Act; and
  - (b) the relevant adjustment was in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations.
- (2) An employer or a self-employed person in relation to whom the Corporation made an upward adjustment must be treated as if the Corporation had made the adjustment under Part 4 of these regulations.

27 Revocation and savings

- (1) The Accident Compensation (Work Account Levies) Regulations 2017 (LI 2017/19) are revoked.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the regulations specified in that subclause continue to apply with respect to the period starting on 1 April 2017 and ending on the close of 31 March 2019 as if they had not been revoked.
