Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Accident Compensation (Earnings' Levy) Regulations 2019.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 1 April 2019.

3 Interpretation

(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Act means the Accident Compensation Act 2001

applicable tax year means, as the case may be,—

(a) the 2019/20 tax year; or

(b) the 2020/21 tax year; or

(c) any later tax year

earnings' levy means the levy payable to fund the Earnings' Account under section 219(1) of the Act.

(2) Any term or expression that is defined in the Act and used, but not defined, in these regulations (for example, earner, earnings, employee, self-employed person, tax year, and weekly compensation) has the same meaning as in the Act.

4 Earnings' levy

(1) The amount of earnings' levy payable for an applicable tax year is,—

- (a) for all earners, except those described in paragraphs (b) and (c), $1.21 per $100 of earnings (which means, for self-employed persons, earnings derived or treated as being derived, and for other earners, earnings paid or treated as paid) in the applicable tax year:
  - (b) for self-employed persons to whom regulation 6 applies (but regulation 7 does not apply), the amount calculated in accordance with regulation 6(2):
  - (c) for self-employed persons to whom regulation 7 applies, the amount calculated in accordance with regulation 7(2).
- (2) Subclause (1) is subject to regulation 5.

5 Maximum earnings on which earners' levy payable

- (1) The maximum amount of earnings, for the purposes of calculating the earners' levy for the 2019/20 tax year on which an earner must pay an earners' levy, is $128,470.
- (2) The maximum amount of earnings, for the purposes of calculating the earners' levy for the 2020/21 tax year, or for any later tax year, on which an earner must pay an earners' levy, is $130,911.

6 Self-employed person who works more than 30 hours per week and earns less than specified amount

- (1) This regulation applies to a self-employed person who, in the applicable tax year,—
  - (a) worked for an average of more than 30 hours per week, whether or not as an employee; and
  - (b) earned less than $36,816.
- (2) The person must pay the earners' levy calculated using the following formula:

$$1.21 \times [($36,816 - a) \div 100]$$ where a is the amount of the person's earnings as an employee in the applicable tax year.

7 Self-employed person who purchases weekly compensation

- (1) This regulation applies to a self-employed person who enters into an agreement with the Corporation under section 209 of the Act to purchase weekly compensation.
- (2) The person must pay the earners' levy calculated using the following formula:

$$1.21 \times [(1.25 \times a) \div 100]$$

where a is the agreed level of weekly compensation purchased by the self-employed person under section 209 of the Act adjusted to an annual figure.

8 Levies exclusive of GST

The amounts of earners' levies in these regulations are exclusive of any goods and services tax payable on the levy.

9 Amount of levies exempt from payment

- (1) This regulation applies to any invoice that—
  - (a) is issued to a self-employed person for the purposes of the Act; and
  - (b) includes the earners' levy.
- (2) The relevant exempt amount for the purposes of section 244 of the Act is $40.

10 Revocation and saving

- (1) The Accident Compensation (Earnings' Levy) Regulations 2017 (LI 2017/18) are revoked.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the Accident Compensation (Earnings' Levy) Regulations 2017 continue to apply to the period starting on 1 April 2017 and ending on the close of 31 March 2019 as if they had not been revoked.

Michael Webster,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 April 2019, prescribe the earners' levy payable by people who engage in employment (whether or not as an employee) for the period comprising—

- the tax year starting on 1 April 2019 and ending on the close of 31 March 2020; and
- the tax year starting on 1 April 2020 and ending on the close of 31 March 2021; and
- any tax year starting on or after 1 April 2021.

Under the Accident Compensation (Earnings' Levy) Regulations 2017, the earners' levy for self-employed people was calculated using earnings derived in the previous tax year (see regulation 6(2), (4), and (5) of those regulations). However, these regulations change that, and provide that the earner's levy for self-employed people is calculated using earnings in the applicable tax year (see regulation 6), as is done for all other earners (see regulation 4).

The regulations also prescribe—

- maximum liable earnings for all earners; and

- a specified amount on which the earners' levy is payable by self-employed people who, in the applicable tax year, worked full-time (ie, more than 30 hours a week) but earned less than the specified amount; and
- the rate for the earners' levy payable by self-employed people who have an agreement with ACC to purchase weekly compensation; and
- the amount of levies exempt from payment for the purposes of section 244 of the Act.

The regulations revoke and replace the Accident Compensation (Earners' Levy) Regulations 2017.

Notes*1 General

This is a consolidation of the Accident Compensation (Earnings' Levy) Regulations 2019 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
