1 Title and commencement

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Animal Remedies (Develvetting) Amendment Regulations 1998, and are part of

Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this eprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this eprint, together with other explanatory material about this eprint.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry.

the Animal Remedies (Develvetting) Regulations 1994¹ (“the principal regulations”).

- (2) These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2 Certificate of approval

The principal regulations are amended by revoking regulation 6, and substituting the following regulation:

- (1) Any person who has successfully completed an approved training programme may apply to the Board for a certificate of approval.

- “(2) If the applicant has held a certificate of approval within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application, the application to the Board for a certificate of approval must be accompanied by—

“(a) Written evidence to the Board from a veterinary surgeon that the applicant—

“(i) Has been assessed, at the commencement of the current develvetting season or as soon as practicable after the commencement of that season, for theoretical and practical competence in the administration of develvetting animal remedies; and

“(ii) Has successfully demonstrated such competence; and

“(b) The fee prescribed by regulation 14(2).

- “(3) If the applicant has not held a certificate of approval within the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date of application, the application to the Board for a certificate of approval must be accompanied by—

“(a) Written evidence to the Board from the organisation operating the approved training programme that the applicant has successfully completed that approved training programme; and

“(b) The fee prescribed by regulation 14(1).

- “(4) Subject to regulations 8 and 9, on receipt of an application in accordance with subclause (2) or subclause (3), the Board must issue a certificate of approval to the applicant.
- “(5) Every certificate of approval must be in a form approved by the Board for that purpose.
- “(6) A certificate of approval is not transferable.”

3 Retraining

Regulation 9(1)(a) of the principal regulations is amended by inserting, after the words “approved training programme”, the words “or held a certificate of approval”.

DIANE WILDERSPIN,

Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette, amend the Animal Remedies (Develvetting) Regulations 1994 by clarifying the requirements for issuing certificates of approval to persons who wish to administer develvetting animal remedies, and the requirements for retraining that apply to such persons.

The effect of these regulations is as follows:

- an applicant who held a certificate of approval within the preceding 5 years must have a current assessment of competence given by a veterinary surgeon:
- other applicants must have completed an approved training programme.
