Order

1 Title

This order is the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Required Testing) Order Revocation Order 2022.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on 30 June 2022.

3 Revocation

The COVID-19 Public Health Response (Required Testing) Order 2020 (LI 2020/230) is revoked.

Note

The Parliamentary Counsel Office has made editorial and format changes to this version using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019.

Note 4 at the end of this version provides a list of the amendments included in it.

This order is administered by the Ministry of Health.

4 Revocation of this order

This order is revoked on 30 July 2022.

Dated at Wellington this 16th day of June 2022.

Hon Dr Ayesha Verrall,
Minister for COVID-19 Response.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order revokes the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Required Testing) Order 2020, which requires certain workers at the border and at isolation and quarantine facilities to undergo regular testing for COVID-19. The revocation takes effect on 30 June 2022.

A revocation order has no ongoing purpose after it has taken effect, so this order revokes itself on 30 July 2022.

Approval by resolution required

This order must be approved by resolution of the House of Representatives before the expiry of the period described in section 16(2) of the COVID-19 Public Health Response Act 2020. If this does not happen, and if the order has not already revoked itself, the order is revoked on the expiry of that period.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 16 June 2022.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Required Testing) Order Revocation Order 2022 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.

4 Amendments incorporated in this consolidation
