Coroners (Salaries and Superannuation) Determination
2007

(SR 2007/148)

Coroners (Salaries and Superannuation) Determination 2007: revoked (with effect on 1 January 2012), on 13 April 2012 (after expiring on 31 December 2007), by clause 9(a) of the Coroners (Salaries and Superannuation) Determination 2012 (SR 2012/67).

Pursuant to section 12B(1)(f) and 12B(2) of the Remuneration Authority Act 1977, and to section 11 of the Interpretation Act 1999, the Remuneration Authority, after consultation with the Government Actuary, makes the following determination (to which is appended an explanatory memorandum).

Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this eprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this eprint, together with other explanatory material about this eprint.

1 Title

This determination is the Coroners (Salaries and Superannuation) Determination 2007.

2 Comment

This determination comes into force on 1 July 2007.

3 Expiry

This determination expires on 31 December 2007.

4 Interpretation

In this determination, unless the context otherwise requires,— coroner—

- (a) means a person holding office under any of sections 103, 104, or 105 of the Coroners Act 2006; but
- (b) does not include a person who, under section 8(d) of the District Courts Act 1947, is a coroner by virtue of holding office as a District Court Judge

New GSF Scheme means the New Government Service Superannuation Scheme established under Part 2A of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956

registered superannuation scheme means a superannuation scheme registered under the Superannuation Schemes Act 1989, other than the New GSF Scheme year means a period of 12 months ending on 31 December.

5 Salaries of coroners

The salary payable to a coroner must be at the annual rate of $200,000.

6 Limited application of clause 7

Clause 7 does not apply to a coroner who—

- (a) is a former coroner appointed under section 103(5) of the Coroners Act 2006; or
- (b) is a relief coroner appointed under section 104 of the Coroners Act 2006; or
- (c) is a current contributor under any of Parts 4, 5, or 5A of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956; or

(d) is a current contributor to the New GSF Scheme.

7 Eligibility for subsidy on contributions to registered superannuation scheme

- (1) A coroner who chooses to contribute to a registered superannuation scheme is entitled to have a subsidy paid on his or her contribution.
- (2) The maximum amount of superannuation subsidy (inclusive of any tax liability) that is payable in any year is 20% of the gross salary actually paid to the coroner in that year.
- (3) In order to qualify for a superannuation subsidy, the contribution that the coroner must make to the registered superannuation scheme must, when expressed as a ratio of the superannuation subsidy to the coroner's contribution, be 5:1.

8 judicial determinations do not apply to coroners

To avoid doubt,—

- (a) nothing in the Judicial Salaries and Allowances Determination 2006 or the Judicial Salaries and Allowances Determination (No 2) 2006 applies to coroners; and
- (b) nothing in the Judicial Superannuation Determination 2006 applies to coroners to whom clause 7 applies.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of May 2007.

Explanatory memorandum

This memorandum is not part of the determination, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This determination comes into force on 1 July 2007 (the date on which sections 103 to 105 of the Coroners Act 2006 come into force) and expires on 31 December 2007. It sets the salary for coroners appointed under the Coroners Act 2006 and prescribes rights to a superannuation subsidy. The determination does not apply to people who, under section 8(d) of the District Courts Act 1947, are coroners by virtue of holding office as a District Court Judge.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 7 June 2007.
