Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

1 Title

This determination is the Civil List (Annuities) Determination 2009.

2 Commencement

This determination is deemed to have come into force on 1 April 2009.

3 Expiry

This determination expires on 31 March 2010.

4 Annuity for former Governor-General

The annuity payable under section 4(1) of the Civil List 1979 to a person who has held office as Governor-General and who was, at the time of that person's appointment, domiciled in New Zealand is payable,—

- (a) if that person held office as Governor-General for a total period of less than 2 complete years, at the yearly rate of $12,400; or
- (b) if that person held office as Governor-General for a total period of 2 complete years or more, at the yearly rate of $12,400 for each complete year (not exceeding 5) of that total period.

5 Annuity for surviving spouse or partner of former Governor-General

The annuity payable under section 4(2) of the Civil List 1979 to the surviving spouse or partner of a person who has held office as Governor-General and who was, at the time of that person's appointment, domiciled in New Zealand is payable,—

- (a) if that person held office as Governor-General for a total period of less than 2 complete years, at the yearly rate of $6,200; or
- (b) if that person held office as Governor-General for a total period of 2 complete years or more, at the yearly rate of $6,200 for each complete year (not exceeding 5) of that total period.

Dated at Wellington this 19th day of May 2009.

Explanatory memorandum

This memorandum is not part of the determination, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This determination is deemed to have come into force on 1 April 2009. It maintains the rate of the annuity payable to a former Governor-General and the rate of the annuity payable to the surviving spouse or partner of a former Governor-General at the levels applying at 31 March 2009.

Maintaining the annuities at these levels is consistent with the approach taken by the Remuneration Authority in March 2009 when setting the salary of the Governor-General. It also takes into account the views, sought by the Authority, of the former Governors-General and the surviving spouses of former Governors-General.

This determination expires on 31 March 2010.

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the Civil List (Annuities) Determination 2009. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the determination as at 31 March 2010, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that have yet to come into force or that contain relevant transitional or savings provisions are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)
- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)

- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
