3 Principal regulations amended	2
4 Schedule amended	2

1 Title

These regulations are the Crown Minerals (Minerals Fees) Amendment Regulations 2007.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

Note

Changes authorised by subpart 2 of Part 2 of the Legislation Act 2012 have been made in this eprint. See the notes at the end of this eprint for further details.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment..

3 Principal regulations amended

These regulations amend the Crown Minerals (Minerals Fees) Regulations 2006.

4 Schedule amended

- (1) The items relating to an application for a certificate of extension of minerals, an application for a certificate of extension of land to which a permit relates, and an application for a certificate of change of permit condition in the Schedule are omitted.

- (2) The Schedule is amended by inserting the following item after the item relating to an application for a mining permit:

Any application under section 36 of the Act 2,500

- (3) The Schedule is amended by omitting the item relating to an application for the Minister's consent to the transfer of a permit and substituting the following item:

Application for Minister's consent under section 41 of the Act 600

Diane Morcom,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette, prescribe—

- a fee of $2,500 for any application under section 36 of the Crown Minerals Act 1991. This fee of $2,500 already applies to an application under that section for a certificate of change of permit condition, a certificate of extension of minerals, or a certificate of extension of land. This amendment means that the fee will apply to all of the applications that may be made under that section:
- a fee of $600 for any application for the Minister's consent under section 41 of that Act. The fee of $600 already applies to an application for consent to the transfer of a permit under that section. This amendment means that the fee will apply to all of the applications for Ministerial consent under that section.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.

Date of notification in Gazette: 17 May 2007.
