Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Earthquake Commission Amendment Regulations 2010.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 4 October 2010.

3 Principal regulations amended

These regulations amend the Earthquake Commission Regulations 1993.

4 New regulation 6 added

The following regulation is added:

6 Longer time for reporting of claims

Three months is prescribed as a longer time within which a notice of claim may be given under clause 7(1)(a) of Schedule 3 of the Act.

Rebecca Kitteridge,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 4 October 2010, provide that notice of claim may be given by an insured person to the Earthquake Commission within 3 months of the occurrence of natural disaster damage to property insured under the Earthquake Commission Act 1993. Currently, clause 7(1)(a) of Schedule 3 of that Act sets a standard time limit of within 30 days but provides that a longer time may be prescribed by regulation.

The extended time limit in clause 7(2) of that schedule is unaffected. That time limit is already 3 months.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 5 October 2010.
