Regulations

- 1 Title
These regulations are the Education (Registration of Kura Kaupapa Maori Teachers) Regulations 2004.
- 2 Commencement
These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.
- 3 Transition plan in relation to Kura Kaupapa Maori
These regulations set out a transition plan for bringing under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989 Kura Kaupapa Maori and persons employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori.
- 4 Provisions of transition plan
The transition plan is—

  - (a) that there be a transition period at the end of which Kura Kaupapa Maori and persons employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori must be brought under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989; and
  - (b) that the setting out of the transition plan in these regulations be the means by which notice of the transition period is given to—
    - (i) Kura Kaupapa Maori; and

- (ii) persons who, at the beginning of the transition period, are employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori; and
  - (iii) persons who, in the transition period, become employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori; and
  - (iv) persons who wish to be employed after the end of the transition period, or to continue to be employed after the end of the transition period, in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori; and
- (c) that, in relation to persons who, at the beginning of the transition period, are not registered as teachers under the Education Act 1989 but are employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori, the transition period should be of such duration as to give to those persons a reasonable period of time within which to exercise the opportunities that those persons have for obtaining registration as teachers under the Education Act 1989; and
- (d) that, throughout the transition period, Part 10 of the Education Act 1989 must continue not to apply to Kura Kaupapa Maori and persons employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori; and
- (e) that the transition period begin with the date of the coming into force of these regulations and end with the close of 31 December 2005.

5 Date of application of teacher registration provisions

- These regulations accordingly set 1 January 2006 as both—
- (a) the date on which Kura Kaupapa Maori and persons employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori are brought under Part 10 of the Education Act 1989; and
  - (b) the date, from the commencement of which, the provisions of Part 10 of the Education Act 1989, apply to both Kura Kaupapa Maori and persons employed in teaching positions at Kura Kaupapa Maori.

Diane Morcom,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Notes

1 *General

This is a reprint of the Education (Registration of Kura Kaupapa Maori Teachers) Regulations 2004. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the regulations as at 12 May 2011, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 *Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 *How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
  - indentation
  - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
  - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
  - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
