Explanatory note

This note is not part of the determination, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This determination, which comes into force on 1 November 2003, determines that the travel, accommodation, attendance, and communications services in respect of members of the Executive are, those set out in the document entitled “Travel, Accommodation, Attendance, and Communications Services Available to Members of Executive” and signed by the Minister Responsible for Ministerial Services on 23 October 2003.

Those services are additional to those set out in the document issued by the Speaker of the House of Representatives that sets out the travel, accommodation, attendance, and communications services available to members of Parliament and their families.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives is required, by section 20B(3) of the Civil List Act 1979, to ensure that a copy of those documents—

- are available for inspection free of charge, or for purchase at a reasonable price, at Parliament House in Wellington and at any other place or places that he or she appoints; and
- are published on the Internet.
