2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 1 December 2014.

3 Principal regulations

These regulations amend the Financial Advisers (Custodians of FMCA Financial Products) Regulations 2014 (the principal regulations).

4 Regulation 4 amended (Application)

- (a) a person (A) provides the FMCA custodial services to C on behalf of the business of another person (B); and
 - (b) B does not itself provide the FMCA custodial services but, by virtue of section 77U of the Act, is treated (instead of A) as the broker having the broker obligations under the Act.
- (4) If this subclause applies,—
- (a) B must ensure that A complies with the requirements of these regulations in respect of the FMCA custodial services (applied as if references to a custodian were references to A); and
 - (b) B must be treated as having complied with the requirements of these regulations in respect of the FMCA custodial services if A complies with the requirements as referred to in paragraph (a).

Michael Webster,

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 December 2014, amend the Financial Advisers (Custodians of FMCA Financial Products) Regulations 2014. The amendment clarifies the application of the regulations where a person (A) provides FMCA custodial services to a client on behalf of the business of another person (B). In this case, B is liable under the Financial Advisers Act 2008 if the requirements of these regulations are breached. The amendment clarifies that—

- B must ensure that A complies with the requirements as if references to a custodian were references to A; and
- B must be treated as having complied with those requirements if A so complies.
