Notice

1 Title

This notice is the Health and Safety at Work (Class Exemption—Fumigation at Marsden Point) Revocation Notice 2023.

2 Commencement

This notice comes into force on 1 August 2023.

3 Revocation

The Health and Safety at Work (Class Exemption—Fumigation at Marsden Point) Notice 2020 (LI 2020/293) is revoked.

Note

The Parliamentary Counsel Office has made editorial and format changes to this version using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019.

Note 4 at the end of this version provides a list of the amendments included in it.

This notice is administered by WorkSafe New Zealand.

4 Revocation of this notice

This notice is revoked on 29 August 2023.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of June 2023.

For and on behalf of the board of WorkSafe New Zealand,
Jennifer Kerr,
Chair,
WorkSafe New Zealand Board.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 1 August 2023, revokes the Health and Safety at Work (Class Exemption—Fumigation at Marsden Point) Notice 2020 (the principal notice).

The principal notice exempts a specified class of persons from compliance with regulation 14.38(1) of the Health and Safety at Work (Hazardous Substances) Regulations 2017, which requires a minimum buffer zone to be set for any fumigation using methyl bromide.

The principal notice is being revoked as a result of the Environmental Protection Authority's decision to ban the use of methyl bromide on ships.

This notice is revoked on 29 August 2023.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 13 July 2023.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Health and Safety at Work (Class Exemption—Fumigation at Marsden Point) Revocation Notice 2023 that incorporates the amendments made to the notice so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.

4 Amendments incorporated in this consolidation
