This order comes into force on 30 June 2013.

Rebecca Kitteridge, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 30 June 2013, amends the order that was made at the time of the abolition of the Ministry of Fisheries (MFish) and the transfer of its functions to the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry (MAF) by exercise of the Crown's prerogative on 1 July 2011.

The effect of that order is that references to MFish or its chief executive can be read as references to MAF or its chief executive (by applying sections 30H and 30I of the State Sector Act 1988 to things coming into force, entered into, or created during a transitional period after the transfer of MFish's functions to MAF). The effect of that order was due to expire on 30 June 2013, but this amendment order extends that transitional period until 30 June 2016.

Explanatory note

A companion order, the State Sector (Ministry for Primary Industries) Amendment Order 2013, extends the transitional period during which sections 30H and 30I of the Act apply to things coming into force, entered into, or created after the name of MAF was changed to the Ministry for Primary Industries on 30 April 2012.

The combined effect of these 2 orders is that, until 30 June 2016, any references to MFish or its chief executive can be read as references to the Ministry for Primary Industries or its chief executive.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012. Date of notification in Gazette: 13 June 2013.
