The principal order enables the Commissioner of Inland Revenue to communicate to the Ministry of Social Development (MSD) certain information held by the Inland Revenue Department (IRD).

The principal order is being revoked because, on and from 31 August 2017, an approved information sharing agreement between IRD and MSD will enable communication of certain information between the agencies (see the Privacy (Information Sharing Agreement between Inland Revenue and Ministry of Social Development) Order 2017).
