Order

1 Title

This order is the Tūhoe-Waikaremoana Māori Trust Board Order 2008.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

In this order,—

Act means the Maori Trust Boards Act 1955

Board means the Tūhoe-Waikaremoana Māori Trust Board.

4 Background

- (1) The term of office of the previous members of the Board expired on 31 August 2006.
- (2) The Board held an election of new members to represent the Ruatāhuna and Ruatoki divisions of the beneficiaries, which was completed on 10 December 2007.
- (3) However, the election was irregular because—
 - (a) the election was not held before the term of office of the previous members of the Board expired; and
 - (b) the Board did not comply with the following procedural requirements for conducting an election under the Act:
 - (i) the requirement under section 46 to give notice calling for nominations for election no later than 4 months before the term of office of the previous members expired (nominations were instead called for on 6 July 2006):
 - (ii) the requirement under sections 46 and 47 to give notice that the latest date by which nominations were to be lodged was the date 3 months before the term of office of the previous members expired (the date was instead notified as 9 August 2006):
 - (iii) the requirement under section 49 to forward to the chief executive of Te Puni Kōkiri the names of the persons elected no later than 20 days before the term of office of the previous members expired (the names were instead received on 31 January 2008).

5 Validation and appointment

Despite the irregularities specified in clause 4(3),—

- (a) the December 2007 election of members to the Board is, and always has been, valid; and
- (b) the persons elected are appointed as members of the Board for the period starting on the commencement of this order and ending on 31 August 2009, as follows:
 - (i) the persons named in Part 1 of the Schedule are appointed to represent the Ruatāhuna division of the beneficiaries; and
 - (ii) the persons named in Part 2 of the Schedule are appointed to represent the Ruatoki division of the beneficiaries.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order comes into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

The order validates the December 2007 election of members to the Tūhoe-Waikaremoana Māori Trust Board. The members were elected to represent the Ruatāhuna and Ruatoki divisions of the beneficiaries of the Board. The election was held after the expiry of the term of office of the previous members of the Board and was subject to the other irregularities specified in clause 4(3)(b) of the order.

The order appoints the elected persons as members of the Board to represent the Ruatāhuna and Ruatoki divisions of the beneficiaries. The members are appointed for the period starting on the commencement of the order and ending on 31 August 2009 (the expiry of the term of office of the members representing the other 2 divisions of the beneficiaries). Section 15(3) of the Maori Trust Boards Act 1955 provides that the previous members continued in office until the new members came into office (unless the previous members vacated office before then).

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the Tūhoe-Waikaremoana Māori Trust Board Order 2008. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the order as at 12 May 2011, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
