Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this eprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this eprint, together with other explanatory material about this eprint.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Commerce.

are part of the Telecommunications (International Services) Regulations 1994<sup>1</sup> (“the principal regulations”).

- (2) These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2 Registration

The principal regulations are amended by revoking regulation 5, and substituting the following regulation:

“5

- (1) Where a person has applied for registration in accordance with these regulations, the Secretary must register that person.

- “(2) The Secretary must, as soon as practicable after a person has been registered in accordance with these regulations, cause notice of that registration to be published in the Gazette.”

MARIE SHROFF,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force 28 days after their notification in the Gazette, remove the Secretary’s discretion to refuse to register persons applying for registration under the principal regulations. The amendment is required to ensure that the principal regulations are consistent with New Zealand’s commitments to the World Trade Organisation.
