Explanatory note

This Supplementary Order Paper (SOP) amends the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children and Young People's Commission Bill.

Changes to Parts 1 to 4 (Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill)

The main changes to Parts 1 to 4, which will become the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill, are as follows:

- clause 3, which provides an overview of the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill, is updated to take account of new clause 16A (Monitor's duty to act independently), the deletion of clause 55, and the adjustment of the time frame for commencing a review in clause 57(3):
- clause 5, which sets out principles that apply in relation to the performance of functions and duties and the exercise of powers under the Bill, is amended to insert new clause 5(aa) and (ab). The new provisions explicitly require a person who performs a function or duty or exercises a power to have regard to—
  - the best interests of children and young people:
  - the perspectives of children and young people:
- clause 7, which sets out common duties of the Monitor and Ombudsmen, is expanded to refer to the Children and Young People's Commission (the Commission) in order to remove duplication of the same provision in the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill and the Children and Young People's Commission Bill (as set out in clauses 7 and 102, respectively):
- clause 8(1), which defines terms used in the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill, is amended to—
  - streamline the definition of approved provider:
  - omit the definition of tikanga Māori as that term is defined in section 2 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989 and is covered by clause 8(2):
  - insert a new definition of non-personal information:
- clause 27, which requires the Monitor to provide a copy of their final reports to certain other Ministers of the Crown, chief executives, Ombudsmen, and the Commission, is amended so that the duty also applies to a report prepared under clause 25 (reviews carried out on the Monitor's own initiative):
- clause 29(3), which requires the chief executive of an agency that is the subject of a final report of the Monitor to prepare a written response to that report within 60 working days of its publication, is replaced with a new provision that shortens the time frame for preparing a response to,—
  - for a final report prepared under clause 21, 24, or 25, no later than 35 working days after receiving the report:
  - for a final report prepared under clause 22 or 23, no later than 20 working days after receiving the report:

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

SOP No 209

- clause 33(1), which gives power to authorised staff members of the Monitor to enter premises for the purposes of carrying out the Monitor's monitoring function under clause 14, is replaced. New clause 33(1) removes the explicit reference to entry for the purpose of observing practice as this occurs as part of the Monitor's monitoring function under clause 14:
- clause 35, which provides that an authorised staff member of the Monitor must not enter premises if they have reason to believe that doing so may result in potential harm to a child, is amended so that the provision also covers potential harm to a young person:
- clause 48, which authorises the Monitor to disclose information collected under the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill, is amended to insert—
  - new clause 48(1)(ea), which authorises the Monitor to disclose non-personal information included in materials proposed to be published by the Monitor if the disclosure is for the purpose of any 1 or more of the Monitor's objectives set out in clause 13; and
  - new clause 48(1)(eb), which authorises the Monitor to disclose non-personal information if the Monitor believes, on reasonable grounds, that the information will be used for statistical or research purposes and will not be used in a form that could be reasonably be expected to identify any individual:
- clause 52, which enables the Monitor to report on interference with the performance of their monitoring function and on non-compliance with certain provisions of the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill, is amended to add new clause 52(7). The new provision provides that the exception set out in clause 52(6), which allows the report to contain personal information in certain situations, may not be relied on if doing so may identify any child or young person who has received services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system:
- new clause 53A is inserted to place an explicit duty on the Monitor to notify the person (or persons) prescribed by regulations made under clause 56(1)(a) if the Monitor becomes aware of any non-compliance with national care standards regulations or any other matter that places a child or young person in care or custody at immediate risk of suffering, or being likely to suffer, serious harm:
- clause 54(3), which enables the Monitor or an Ombudsman to refer matters under the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill to other persons or bodies, is amended to clarify that written notice of the referral must be given without delay to the individual who brought the matter to the Monitor's or the Ombudsman's attention:
- clause 54(4), which sets out a list of persons and bodies to whom the Monitor or an Ombudsman may refer matters under clause 54, is updated to reflect the disestablishment of district health boards and establishment of Health New Zealand and the Māori Health Authority by the Pae Ora (Healthy Futures) Act 2022:

- clause 57, which provides for a review of the new Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Act after its commencement, is amended to—
  - insert new clause 57(2)(d), which requires the review to consider any other matters that the Minister considers appropriate, after consulting the Monitor, the Chief Ombudsman, and other Ministers with relevant portfolios, as necessary;
  - adjust the period specified in clause 57(3) for commencing the review from no later than 5 years after commencement of the Act to no later than 3 years after commencement;
  - adjust clause 57(5), which requires the Minister to present a copy of the report on the review of the Act to the House of Representatives, to change the time frame for presenting the report to make the provision consistent with the time frame for presenting other reports to the House of Representatives under the Bill.

Changes to Part 5 (Children and Young People's Commission Bill)

The main changes to Part 5, which will become the Children and Young People's Commission Bill, are as follows:

- clause 86, which defines terms used in the Children and Young People's Commission Bill, is amended to make a technical change to the definition of Minister and to insert a new definition of Ministry that replaces and simplifies the current definition of responsible department;
- clause 102, which sets out common duties of the Commission, the Monitor, and Ombudsmen, is deleted as the substance of the provision is now included in clause 7 of the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill (as amended by this SOP);
- clause 103, which refers to additional functions, duties, and powers of the Commission under other legislation, is amended to add new clause 103(2), which signposts the common duties of the Commission under clause 7 of the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill;
- clause 104, which requires the Commission to have regard to the rights or interests and welfare of children when it is performing its functions, is expanded to refer to any additional functions conferred on the Commission under clause 103;
- clause 113, which provides for the Commission, the Monitor, and an Ombudsman to share information, is amended to correct the reference in clause 113(2)(b) to the Ombudsman's functions, duties, and powers (which are set out in subpart 2 of Part 2 of the Oversight of the Oranga Tamariki System Bill and the Ombudsmen Act 1975);
- clause 114, which enables the Commission to report on interference with the Commission's functions or non-compliance with a requirement to provide the Commission with information under clause 107, is amended to add new

Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

SOP No 209

clause 114(5). The new provision provides that the exception set out in clause 114(4) (which allows the report to contain personal information in certain situations) may not be relied on if doing so may identify any child or young person who has received services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system:

- clause 115(3), which enables the Commission to refer matters under the Bill to other persons or bodies, is amended to clarify that written notice of the referral must be given without delay to the individual who brought the matter to the Commission's attention:
- clause 115(4), which sets out a list of persons and bodies to whom the Commission may refer matters under section 115, is updated to reflect the disestablishment of district health boards and establishment of Health New Zealand and the Māori Health Authority by the Pae Ora (Healthy Futures) Act 2022:
- clause 118, which provides for a review of the new Children and Young People's Commission Act after its commencement, is amended to—
  - adjust the period specified in clause 118(3) for commencing the review from no later than 5 years after commencement of the Act to no later than 3 years after commencement:
  - adjust clause 118(5), which requires the Minister to present a copy of the report on the review of the Act to the House of Representatives, to change the time frame for presenting the report to make the provision consistent with the time frame for presenting other reports to the House of Representatives under the Bill.

Other minor and technical changes

This SOP also makes minor and technical changes to the Bill, as follows:

- clause 34(2) and (3) is updated to reflect the replacement of clause 33(1):
- clause 35(1)(a) is amended to include a reference to young people:
- clause 41(4)(b) is amended to include a reference to alleged youth offending for consistency with clause 9(1)(b) and the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989:
- clause 42(1) is amended to adjust a cross-reference to clause 38:
- clause 44, which relates to engagement by the Monitor, is moved to become new clause 19A in order to locate the provision closer to the relevant provisions relating to the Monitor's code of ethics:
- clauses 51(2)(b) and 51A(1) are amended to clarify and simplify the references to an Ombudsman's duties and powers under the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill and their functions, duties, and powers under the Ombudsmen Act 1975:
- clause 56, which provides for the making of regulations under the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill, is amended reflect the insertion of new clause 53A and to delete clause 56(1)(i) because the provision is no longer required:

- clause 82, which provides an overview of the Children and Young People's Commission Bill, is amended to correct a cross-reference:
- clause 94(1), which requires a nomination panel to be convened for the purposes of assessing and recommending candidates for appointment to the board of the Commission, is consequentially amended to take account of the new definition of Ministry in clause 86:
- clause 99(ha), which provides that the Commission may report matters to the Prime Minister, is amended to include a reference to young people:
- clauses 113(2)(b) and 115(4)(c) are amended to clarify the references to the jurisdiction of Ombudsmen (as set out in subpart 2 of Part 2 of the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill and the Ombudsmen Act 1975):
- clause 114, which enables the Commission to report on interference with the performance of its function under the Bill or on non-compliance with clause 107, is amended to reorganise subclause (4) and to omit references to individual caregivers and other individuals delivering services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system, which were inadvertently carried over from the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System Bill:
- other grammatical and drafting changes are made throughout the Bill.

Departmental disclosure statement

The Ministry of Social Development considers that a departmental disclosure statement is not required to be prepared for this Supplementary Order Paper.

The Honourable Carmel Sepuloni, in Committee, to propose the amendments shown in the following document.

- (4) Part 4 makes related amendments to other legislation.
- (5) This section is only a guide to the general scheme and effect of this Act.

4 Purpose of this Act

The purpose of this Act is to uphold the rights and interests and improve the well-being of children and young people who are receiving, or have previously received, services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system and promote the effectiveness of that system by—

- (a) setting out the functions, duties, and powers of the Monitor; and
- (b) giving Ombudsmen additional duties and powers when dealing with matters that may fall under the Ombudsmen Act 1975 and that relate to services or support delivered by—
  - (i) Oranga Tamariki:

- (ii) care or custody providers; and
- (c) creating a framework for the Monitor and Ombudsmen to work together in a comprehensive, cohesive, and efficient way and to consult one another and share information, as appropriate.

5 Principles

A person who performs a function or duty or exercises a power under this Act must have regard to—

- (a) the well-being, interests, and voices of children, young people, and their families and whānau:
  - (aa) the best interests of children and young people:
  - (ab) the perspectives of children and young people:
- (b) the need to respect and uphold the rights of children and young people in New Zealand law (including their rights in New Zealand law that are derived from the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child or the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities):
- (c) the importance of relationships and connections of children and young people with their families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities.

6 Tiriti o Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi

In order to recognise and respect the Crown's responsibility to give effect to Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi, and to improve the well-being of children and young people within (without limitation) the context of their whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities,—

- (a) section 13(2) requires the Monitor when developing monitoring priorities, work programmes, and monitoring approaches to ensure that they have as a key priority the need to support improved outcomes for Māori children and young people:
- (b) section 14(2)(c) requires the Monitor to assess the outcomes for children, young people, families, and whānau who receive services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system, and the change in outcomes over time, with particular regard to Māori children and young people and their whānau:
- (c) section 16(2)(b) and (c) requires the Monitor to ensure that their tools and monitoring approaches operate in a way that recognises the importance of children's and young people's families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities and incorporate a tikanga Māori approach:
- (d) section 17 requires the Monitor to appoint a Māori Advisory Group:
- (e) section 18 provides that the Monitor must collaborate with, and have regard to the views of, the Māori Advisory Group when the Monitor is developing their priorities, work programmes, and monitoring approaches:

- (f) section 19 requires the Monitor to make reasonable efforts to develop arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations for the purposes of providing opportunities to, and inviting proposals on how to, improve oversight of the Oranga Tamariki system and sharing information under this Act:
- (g) section 23 requires the Monitor to prepare an annual report on the performance of the Oranga Tamariki system in respect of outcomes being achieved for Māori children and young people and their whānau:
- (h) section 38 provides that when dealing with a complaint or an investigation involving Oranga Tamariki, or a care or custody provider, an Ombudsman must—
  - (i) operate in a way that recognises the importance of a child's or young person's whānau, hapū, iwi, and culture, including providing for whānau, hapū, and iwi to participate in the complaints or investigations processes, as appropriate; and
  - (ii) ensure that their complaints and investigations processes are visible and accessible to children and young people and their whānau, hapū, or iwi, or an individual or organisation supporting them, and to incorporate a tikanga Māori approach:
- (i) section 42 provides that the Chief Ombudsman must make reasonable efforts to develop arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations for the purposes of supporting Ombudsmen in carrying out their duties and providing for the sharing of information under this Act:
- (j) section 49(4)(b)(i) requires the Monitor to consult hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations with whom the Monitor has entered into arrangements under section 19 when making information rules relating to the collection, use, and disclosure of information by the Monitor:
- (k) section 57(2)(b)(i) requires an independent review of the operation of the Monitor under this Act to consider whether they are working efficiently and effectively with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations.

Part 2 Oversight of Oranga Tamariki system

Subpart 1—Monitoring of Oranga Tamariki system

Independent Monitor of Oranga Tamariki System

12 Independent Monitor of Oranga Tamariki System established

- (1) This section establishes the Independent Monitor of the Oranga Tamariki System (the Monitor).
- (2) The Monitor is the person appointed under the Public Service Act 2020 as the chief executive of the Independent Monitoring Agency of the Oranga Tamariki System.
- (3) The Monitor must be independent of Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children.

Monitor's objectives, monitoring function, duties, and powers

13 Monitor's objectives

- (1) The objectives of the Monitor are to carry out objective, impartial, and evidence-based monitoring, and provide advice in order to—
  - (a) assess the extent to which the Oranga Tamariki system and its interface with other systems support the rights, interests, and well-being of children, young people, and their families and whānau who are receiving, or have previously received, services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system:
  - (b) assess whether the coercive powers exercised under the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989 are being exercised appropriately and consistently:
  - (c) support public trust and confidence in the Oranga Tamariki system:
  - (d) identify areas of high performance and areas for improvement in relation to the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki and approved providers to encourage them to work towards continuous improvement:
  - (e) support an understanding of specific aspects of the Oranga Tamariki system and its interface with other systems:
  - (f) support informed decision making.
- (2) When developing their monitoring priorities, work programme, and monitoring approaches, the Monitor must ensure that they have as a key priority the need to support improved outcomes for children and young people, with particular attention to the need to support improved outcomes for Māori children and young people.
- (3) In this section and section 14(1), other systems means the services or support provided by agencies or their contracted partners, or the performance or exercise of statutory functions or powers,—

and Young People’s Commission Bill

Part 2 cl 14

- (a) in relation to children or young people who—
  - (i) are or were the subject of a report made under section 15 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989; or
  - (ii) are subject to any process under Part 4 or 5 or sections 351 to 360 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989; and
- (b) that aim to address the risk factors that increase the likelihood of a person’s involvement in the statutory care and protection system or youth justice jurisdiction under that Act.

14 Monitoring function

- (1) The function of the Monitor is to monitor the performance of the Oranga Tamariki system in the context of its interface with other systems.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the function includes (without limitation)—
  - (a) assessing compliance with the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989, national care standards regulations, and other regulations and standards made under that Act by the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki and approved providers;
  - (b) assessing the quality and impacts of service delivery, service mix, service resourcing, and practices on the experiences of children, young people, families, and whānau;
  - (c) assessing outcomes for children, young people, families, and whānau who receive services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system, and changes in outcomes over time, with particular regard to Māori children and young people and their whānau.

16 Tools and monitoring approaches

- (1) The Monitor must develop tools and monitoring approaches to support their monitoring and reporting under this Act.
- (2) The Monitor must ensure that their tools and monitoring approaches—
  - (a) include the sources of information and key indicators of performance that will be used to assess compliance, quality of care, and changes over time; and
  - (b) operate in a way that recognises the importance of children’s and young people’s families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities and their culture; and
  - (c) incorporate a tikanga Māori approach.
- (3) The tools and monitoring approaches must have regard to systems for continuous improvement, self-monitoring, and assurance.
- (4) In developing their tools and monitoring approaches, the Monitor must consult—

- (a) the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki;
- (b) the chief executive of services approved under section 396 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989, who has custody of children or young people;
- (c) the Commissioner of Police.

16A Duty to act independently

- (1) The Monitor must act independently when—
  - (a) carrying out their monitoring function under section 14; and
  - (b) developing tools and monitoring approaches under section 16.
- (2) A Minister of the Crown must not direct the Monitor to stop carrying out an activity, or prevent the Monitor from carrying out an activity, that the Monitor considers is necessary to enable them to perform or exercise their functions, duties, or powers under this Act.

Māori Advisory Group

17 Māori Advisory Group

- (1) The Monitor must appoint a Māori Advisory Group in order to support meaningful and effective engagement with Māori.
- (1A) The Māori Advisory Group consists of not fewer than 3, and not more than 6, members.
- (2) A person must not be appointed as a member of the Māori Advisory Group unless, in the opinion of the Monitor, the person is qualified for appointment, having regard to the person's—
  - (a) experience and knowledge of children's and young people's rights and issues in the context of the Oranga Tamariki system; and
  - (b) experience and knowledge of tikanga Māori.

18 Collaboration with Māori Advisory Group

- (1) The Monitor must collaborate with, and have regard to the views of, the Māori Advisory Group when the Monitor is developing their priorities, work programmes, and monitoring approaches.
- (2) The Monitor must demonstrate annually on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the Monitor how they have had regard to the views of the Māori Advisory Group.

Arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations

19 Arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations

- (1) The Monitor must make reasonable efforts to develop arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations for the purposes of—

- (a) providing opportunities to, and inviting proposals on how to, improve oversight of the Oranga Tamariki system:
- (b) sharing information under this Act.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits or affects any other legislation that applies to the sharing of information.

Engagement by Monitor

19A Engagement by Monitor

For the purpose of performing their monitoring function under this Act, the Monitor may engage directly with—

- (a) children and young people who receive services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system and the families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities associated with those children and young people:
- (b) the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki, approved providers, and care-givers:
- (c) relevant stakeholders, including advocacy services:
- (d) any other individual or agency that the Monitor considers appropriate.

Code of ethics

20 Monitor must have code of ethics relating to engagement

- (1) The Monitor must have a code of ethics relating to engagement with other persons carried out by the Monitor and the Monitor's staff in performance of the monitoring function under this Act.
- (2) The purposes of the code of ethics are to—
  - (a) ensure safe (including culturally safe) and ethical engagement:
  - (b) provide assurance that the voices of individuals, particularly children and young people, are heard:
  - (c) provide certainty in engagement:
  - (d) minimise the burden of engagement.
- (3) The code of ethics must—
  - (a) include the information prescribed by regulations made under section 56; and
  - (b) be reviewed by the Monitor at intervals not exceeding 5 years or any shorter intervals prescribed by regulations made under section 56.
- (4) When developing the code of ethics, or any amendments to the code of ethics, the Monitor must consult the person or persons prescribed by regulations made under section 56.

- (5) The Monitor must publish the code of ethics on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the Monitor.

Reports and reviews

21 State of Oranga Tamariki system report

The Monitor must, at least once every 3 years, prepare a State of the Oranga Tamariki system report.

22 Annual report on compliance with national care standards regulations

- (1) The Monitor must prepare an annual report on compliance with national care standards regulations.
- (2) When preparing the report, the Monitor must consider and be informed by—
- (a) self-monitoring done under the national care standards; and
  - (b) any other information obtained in accordance with this Act.

23 Annual report on outcomes for Māori children and young people and their whānau

- (1) The Monitor must prepare an annual report on the performance of the Oranga Tamariki system in respect of outcomes being achieved for Māori children and young people and their whānau.
- (2) When preparing the report, the Monitor must consider and be informed by—
- (a) reports published under section 7AA(5) of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989; and
  - (b) any other information obtained in accordance with this Act.

24 Requests for reviews

- (1) The Monitor must carry out a review on any topic within their monitoring function at the request of the Minister responsible for the Monitor.
- (2) However, a request under subsection (1) must not require the Monitor to stop carrying out any 1 or more of their monitoring activities currently underway or scheduled to begin in order to prioritise a review of the matter to which the request relates.
- (3) The Monitor may carry out a review on any topic within their monitoring function at the request of the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki.
- (4) The Monitor must prepare a ~~final~~ report of the results of a review carried out under this section.

25 Reviews on Monitor's own initiative

- (1) The Monitor may, on their own initiative, carry out reviews of issues, themes, concerns, or areas of identified practice relating to the delivery of services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system.

and Young People's Commission Bill

Part 2 cl 26

- (2) The Monitor must prepare a ~~final~~ report of the results of a review carried out under this section.

26 Comments on Monitor's draft findings or draft report

- (1) Before finalising any report prepared under ~~this~~ subpart section 21, 22, 23, 24, or 25, the Monitor must—
- (a) provide their draft findings or draft report to the chief executive of the agency that is the subject of the report; and
  - (b) give the chief executive a reasonable opportunity to comment on the draft findings or draft report.
- (2) Despite anything in this subpart, the Monitor must not, in any report prepared under ~~this~~ subpart section 21, 22, 23, 24, or 25, make any comment that is adverse to an individual or agency if the Monitor has not given that individual or agency a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

27 Final reports

The Monitor must provide a copy of a final report prepared under section 21, 22, 23, or 24 24, or 25 to—

- (a) the Minister responsible for the Monitor; and
- (b) the Minister responsible for the administration of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989; and
- (c) the chief executive of an agency that is the subject of the report; and
- (d) Ombudsmen; and
- (e) the Children and Young People's Commission.

28 Final reports to be presented to House of Representatives

The Minister responsible for the administration of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989 must present a copy of a final report prepared under section 21, 22, 23, 24, or 25 to the House of Representatives as soon as ~~is reasonably~~ practicable after receiving the report.

29 Responses to final reports

- (1) The chief executive of an agency that is the subject of any final report of the Monitor must prepare a response in writing to that report.
- (2) In the response, the chief executive must—
- (a) state what the agency intends to do in response to the Monitor's findings; and
  - (b) specify the time frame in which the agency intends to make any necessary changes; and
  - (c) state how the agency intends to monitor the impact of those changes.

- (3) ~~The chief executive must provide their response, within 60 working days of a final report being published under section 30, to the following:~~
- ~~(a) the Monitor;~~
  - ~~(b) the Minister responsible for the Monitor;~~
  - ~~(c) the Minister responsible for the administration of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989.~~
- (3) The chief executive must provide their response to the Monitor, the Minister responsible for the Monitor, and the Minister responsible for the administration of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989,—
- (a) for a final report prepared under section 21, 24, or 25, no later than 35 working days after receiving the report;
  - (b) for a final report prepared under section 22 or 23, no later than 20 working days after receiving the report.
- (4) ~~The Minister responsible for the Monitor may, in accordance with regulations made under section 56, extend the time frame for providing a response under subsection (3)(a) or (b) if—~~
- ~~(a) a final report of the Monitor makes findings relevant to multiple agencies; and~~
  - ~~(b) the Minister responsible for the Monitor considers that a multi-agency response is desirable.~~

30 Publication of final reports and responses

- (1) The Monitor must publish a copy of a final report prepared under section 21, 22, 23, 24, or 25 and any response to a final report prepared under section 29—
- (a) on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the Monitor; and
  - (b) within the time frame specified in regulations made under section 56.
- (2) If a final report or response contains information that may identify an individual, the information must be redacted or withheld from publication, unless—
- (a) the information is of a kind referred to in section 31(4)(a) or (b); and
  - (b) section 31(5) applies.
- (3) However, the exception in subsection (2) may not be relied on if release of the information may identify any child or young person who has received services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system from an individual referred to in section 31(4)(a) or (b).

31 Duty to protect individuals' privacy in relation to reports

- (1) This section applies to a report prepared by the Monitor under section 21, 22, 23, 24(4), 25(2), or 27.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

Part 2 cl 32

- (2) The report must not contain any personal information about a child or young person or any member of their family or whānau unless the Monitor has obtained informed consent (in accordance with its code of ethics) from the relevant individual (or individuals) to include their personal information in the response report with full knowledge of who will receive the response report.
- (3) The chief executive of an agency that prepares a response to a report referred to in subsection (1) must not include any personal information that relates to an individual referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) Unless either or both of the circumstances in subsection (5) apply, a report listed in subsection (1) and a response referred to in subsection (3) may not include any personal information about—
  - (a) an individual caregiver;
  - (b) any other individual delivering services or support to children and young people through the Oranga Tamariki system.
- (5) The circumstances are—
  - (a) the individual concerned consents to their personal information being in the report or response;
  - (b) the Monitor or the chief executive of the agency (as applicable) considers that the public interest in including the personal information in the report or response outweighs the individual's privacy interests.

Power of entry for monitoring purposes

32 Authorisation of staff

- (1) The Monitor may authorise any of their employees or contracted staff (an authorised staff member) to enter premises in accordance with this Act.
- (2) An authorised staff member must carry and produce when asked to do so—
  - (a) evidence of their authorisation to enter the premises; and
  - (b) evidence of their identity.
- (3) In this section and sections 33 to 35, premises means a residence or an office that is owned, managed, or contracted by Oranga Tamariki or an approved provider.

33 Power to enter premises

- ~~(1) An authorised staff member may enter premises if they reasonably believe it is necessary for the purpose of—~~
  - ~~(a) observing practice; or~~
  - ~~(b) monitoring the performance of the Oranga Tamariki system under section 14.~~

- (1) An authorised staff member may enter premises if they reasonably believe it is necessary for the purpose of monitoring the performance of the Oranga Tamariki system under section 14.
- (2) This section is subject to sections 34 and 35.

34 Notice of entry

- (1) Before entering premises under section 33, an authorised staff member must give written notice of the proposed entry to the person in charge of the premises.
- (2) The notice must—
  - (a) state that the power of entry is being exercised ~~under~~ for the purpose described in section 33(1); and
  - (b) ~~state whether the authorised staff member will be entering the premises for the purpose described in section 33(a) or (b), or both; and~~
  - (c) be given within a reasonable time before entry is to occur.
- (3) ~~However, the notice need not explain—~~
  - (a) ~~why the authorised staff member reasonably believes entry is necessary for a purpose or purposes described in section 33; or~~
  - (b) ~~which particular aspect of the monitoring function of the Monitor will be performed.~~
- (3) However, the notice need not explain why the authorised staff member reasonably believes entry is necessary for the purpose described in section 33(1).

35 Limits on power of entry

- (1) An authorised staff member must not enter premises under section 33 if—
  - (a) the authorised staff member has reason to believe that entering the premises may result in a child or young person being at risk of being harmed; or
  - (b) a person in charge of the premises denies entry to the premises in exceptional circumstances.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b), exceptional circumstances means—
  - (a) people within the premises are experiencing serious health concerns (for example, an outbreak of gastroenteritis); or
  - (b) a serious event or incident has occurred and a visit by an authorised staff member is likely to exacerbate tension or cause emotional harm to a child or young person at the premises.
- (3) A person in charge who denies entry to an authorised staff member under subsection (1)(b) must provide a reason in writing to the Monitor within a reasonable time before the entry is to occur.

Subpart 2—Complaints oversight by Ombudsmen

36 Purpose of this subpart

The purpose of this subpart is to provide Ombudsmen with additional duties and powers when dealing with matters that fall under the Ombudsmen Act 1975 and relate to services or support delivered by—

- (a) Oranga Tamariki; or
- (b) care or custody providers.

37 Application of Act to Ombudsmen

- (1) The provisions specified in subsection (2) apply to ~~Ombudsmen~~ an Ombudsman when they are dealing with matters that fall under the Ombudsmen Act 1975 and relate to services or support delivered by—

- (a) Oranga Tamariki; or
- (b) care or custody providers.

- (2) The provisions are—

- (a) Part 1 (preliminary provisions):
- (b) section 38 (duties of Ombudsman in relation to complaints and investigations):
- (c) section 51 (sharing of information between Monitor and Ombudsman):
- (ca) section 51A (disclosure of information by Ombudsman to appropriate agency or person):
- (d) section 54 (referrals of matters).

- (3) Nothing in this Act limits or affects the functions, duties, and powers of ~~Ombudsmen~~ an Ombudsman under the Ombudsmen Act 1975.

38 Duties of Ombudsman in relation to complaints and investigations

When dealing with a complaint or an investigation involving Oranga Tamariki or a care or custody provider, an Ombudsman must—

- (a) operate in a way that recognises the importance of a child's or young person's family, whānau, hapū, iwi, and culture; and
- (b) ensure that the Ombudsman's complaints and investigations processes—
  - (i) are visible and accessible to children and young people and their family, whānau, hapū, and iwi, or an individual or organisation supporting them; and
  - (ii) incorporate a tikanga Māori approach; and
- (c) involve the child or young person, and their family, whānau, hapū, and iwi in their complaints or investigations processes, as appropriate.

39 Guidance relating to complaints and systems improvement

- (1) An Ombudsman may provide guidance to Oranga Tamariki and care or custody providers—
  - (a) on the design of their complaints processes; and
  - (b) to support the learning and continuous improvement of those processes.
- (2) The Ombudsmen Act 1975 applies, with all necessary modifications, to the matters specified in subsection (1).

40 Preliminary inquiries

- (1) An Ombudsman may require Oranga Tamariki or a care or custody provider to provide the Ombudsman with any information they consider necessary for the purposes of carrying out preliminary inquiries.
- (2) The Ombudsmen Act 1975 applies, with all necessary modifications, to the power in subsection (1) as if it were a requirement under section 19 of that Act.

41 Information to be proactively provided to Ombudsman

- (1) The purpose of this section is to provide an Ombudsman with access to classes of information to assist the Ombudsman when they are considering matters that fall under the Ombudsmen Act 1975 and relate to services or support delivered by—
  - (a) Oranga Tamariki; or
  - (b) care or custody providers.
- (2) The chief executive of Oranga Tamariki or the care or custody provider must provide an Ombudsman with access to all information that is available to them in the following categories:
  - (a) information relating to every critical or serious incident;
  - (b) information on complaints made to Oranga Tamariki or the care or custody provider;
  - (c) information on trends and data that identify patterns of those complaints;
  - (d) any other class of information that the Ombudsman specifies in writing will inform their consideration of matters that relate to an agency delivering services in the Oranga Tamariki system and that may fall under the Ombudsmen Act 1975 or to assist in carrying out preliminary inquiries under section 40.
- (3) ~~The~~An Ombudsman may, after consulting the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki and care or custody providers, specify in writing the manner and reasonable time frame within which any information referred to in subsection (2)(a) to (d) must be provided.

  - (k) a report that a child or young person is missing from their placement or has absconded from a youth justice residence or other secure care.

Arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations

42 Arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations

- (1) The Chief Ombudsman must make reasonable efforts to develop arrangements with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations for the purposes of—
- (a) supporting Ombudsmen in carrying out their duties in relation to complaints and investigations under section 38(a) and (b):
  - (b) sharing information under this Act.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits or affects any other legislation that applies to the sharing of information.

Part 3 Information provisions and other matters

Subpart 1—Information provisions

43 Purpose for which information ~~to~~ may be collected, used, or disclosed

The Monitor may only collect, use, or disclose information under this Act—

- (a) to enable the Monitor to fulfil their objectives and (as applicable) perform or exercise their functions, duties, or powers; or
- (b) as otherwise provided under this Act.

Collection of information

44 Engagement by Monitor

~~For the purpose of performing their monitoring function under this Act, the Monitor may engage directly with—~~

- ~~(a) children and young people who receive services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system and the families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities associated with those children and young people;~~
- ~~(b) the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki, approved providers, and care-givers;~~
- ~~(c) relevant stakeholders, including advocacy services;~~
- ~~(d) any other individual or agency that the Monitor considers appropriate.~~

45 Monitor's power to require information

- (1) The Monitor may require an agency that delivers services or support to children, young people, and their family and whānau through the Oranga Tamariki system to provide them with information the Monitor considers relevant to fulfil their objectives and perform or exercise their functions, duties, or powers under this Act.
- (2) A requirement must—
  - (a) be in writing; and
  - (b) be made in accordance with the Monitor's code of ethics and information rules; and
  - (c) specify the date by which, and the manner in which, the information is to be provided.
- (3) An agency that is required to provide information under this section must comply with the requirement.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

Part 3 cl 46

---

(4) Nothing in this section limits or affects legal professional privilege.

46 Consent required to collect information from child or young person

- (1) Before collecting information directly from a child or young person, the Monitor must—
- (a) comply with the requirements in the Monitor's code of ethics in respect of engaging with children and young people; and
  - (b) obtain informed consent from—
    - (i) the child or young person; or
    - (ii) the child or young person's caregiver, if the child or young person does not have the capacity to consent.
- (2) A child or young person, or (as applicable) their caregiver, may withdraw their consent to the collection of information at any time.

47 Duty of caregiver to facilitate access to child or young person without undue delay

- (1) The Monitor may, in accordance with their code of ethics, require a child's or young person's caregiver to facilitate the Monitor's access to a child or young person in their care when monitoring the performance of the Oranga Tamariki system under section 14.
- (2) A caregiver to whom subsection (1) applies must not unduly delay access to the child or young person if required to facilitate access under this section.

Disclosure of information

48 Disclosure of information

- (1) The Monitor must not disclose any information collected by the Monitor under this Act, unless 1 or more the following apply:
- (a) the information is shared for the purposes of section 7(2)(a);
  - (b) the information is shared with hapū, iwi, or Māori organisations in accordance with arrangements developed under section 19(1)(b);
  - (c) the information is shared with an Ombudsman in accordance with section 51;
  - (d) the information is for a referral under section 54;
  - (e) the information is—
    - (i) available to the public under this Act; or
    - (ii) publicly available and, in the case of any personal information, it would not be unfair or unreasonable in the circumstances to disclose the information:

- (ea) the information is non-personal information included in materials proposed to be published by the Monitor and the disclosure is for the purpose of any 1 or more of the Monitor's objectives set out in section 13:
  - (eb) the information is non-personal information and the Monitor believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is for statistical or research purposes and the information will not be used in a form that could be reasonably be expected to identify any individual:
  - (f) the disclosure of the information—
    - (i) is made under this Act or regulations made under section 56; or
    - (ii) is otherwise required by or under law:
  - (fa) the disclosure is permitted by section 113 of the Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children and Young People's Commission Act 2021:
  - (g) the disclosure of the information is with the consent of the person—
    - (i) to whom the information relates; or
    - (ii) to whom the information is confidential:
  - (h) the Monitor believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is reasonably necessary—
    - (i) to protect a person from harm; or
    - (ii) to prevent or lessen a serious threat to public health or safety or to the life or health of any person.
- (2) In subsection (1)(h)(ii), serious threat means a threat that an agency reasonably believes to be a serious threat having regard to all of the following:
- (a) the likelihood of the threat being realised; and
  - (b) the severity of the consequences if the threat is realised; and
  - (c) the time at which the threat may be realised.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits or affects section 15 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989 (which provides for reporting concerns to the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki or a constable).

Monitor's information rules

49 Monitor's information rules

- (1) The Monitor must make rules (information rules) relating to the collection, use, and disclosure of information by the Monitor to ensure protection of the privacy of persons to whom personal information relates, and the confidentiality of other information.
- (2) The information rules must support the performance of the Monitor's monitoring function and protect the privacy of children, young people, their families and whānau.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

---

- (3) The power of the Monitor to make information rules must not be delegated to another person.
- (4) When making information rules, the Monitor must—
  - (a) make reasonable efforts to consult interested or affected agencies; and
  - (b) consult the following:
    - (i) hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations with whom the Monitor has entered into arrangements under section 19;
    - (ii) the chief executive of Oranga Tamariki;
    - (iii) approved providers;
    - (iv) the Privacy Commissioner.
- (5) Information rules made under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

50 Content of information rules

Information rules made under section 49 must contain rules relating to—

- (a) the collection of information under section 45;
- (b) the methods of collecting information;
- (c) the use of information (for example, that information may only be used by approved staff);
- (d) the storage and disposal of information (for example, how information is to be kept separate from other information held by the Monitor);
- (e) the accuracy and completeness of information (for example, procedures for confirming or validating information);
- (f) the disclosure of information under this Act;
- (g) the operational procedures to support the sharing of information between hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations and the Monitor under section 19.

Sharing of information

51 Sharing of information between Monitor and Ombudsman

- (1) The Monitor and an Ombudsman may share information with each other, if the provider of the information believes either or both of the following apply:
  - (a) the sharing of the information would minimise the burden on individuals ~~and~~ or agencies;
  - (b) the sharing of the information would assist the Monitor or an Ombudsman in the performance ~~of each~~ or exercise of their functions, duties, ~~and~~ or powers.
- (2) Any information received by the Monitor or an Ombudsman under this Act may only be used in connection with,—

- (a) in the case of the Monitor, the performance or exercise of ~~the Monitor's~~ their functions, duties, and ~~power~~ or powers under this Act:
  - (b) in the case of an Ombudsman, the performance or exercise of ~~an Ombudsman's functions, duties, or powers~~ their duties or powers under this Act or functions, duties, or powers under the Ombudsmen Act 1975.
- (3) Information may be provided whether or not a request has been made.
  - (4) The Monitor or an Ombudsman may decline a request for the sharing of information under this section.
  - (5) This section overrides section 21 of the Ombudsmen Act 1975.

51A Disclosure of information by Ombudsman to appropriate agency or person

- (1) An Ombudsman may disclose information obtained in the course of performing or exercising their functions, duties, or powers under this Act or the Ombudsmen Act 1975 (as applicable) to an appropriate agency or person if the Ombudsman considers that—
  - (a) there is a credible and serious risk of harm to a child or young person; and
  - (b) the disclosure is necessary to mitigate that risk.
- (2) This section overrides section 21 of the Ombudsmen Act 1975.

Subpart 2—Other matters

Reports of interference or non-compliance

52 Monitor may report interference or non-compliance

- (1) The Monitor may report to the chief executive of a department or an agency, or to any Minister responsible for the department or an agency, if—
  - (a) the Monitor considers there has been interference with the performance of their monitoring function under this Act:
  - (b) a chief executive of an agency has not provided a response to a final report of the Monitor within the time frame specified in section 29(3), or as extended under section 29(4):
  - (c) any authorised staff member of the Monitor has been denied entry to premises under section 35 (other than in exceptional circumstances within the meaning of section 35(2)):
  - (d) an agency has not complied with a requirement to provide information under section 45:
  - (e) a child's or young person's caregiver has unduly delayed or denied access to the child or young person after being required to facilitate access under section 47.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

Part 3 cl 53

- (2) The Monitor must give a copy of any report prepared under subsection (1) to the Minister responsible for the Monitor and the Minister responsible for the administration of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989.
- (3) The Minister responsible for the Monitor may report to the House of Representatives on the matter.
- (4) The Monitor may publicly notify the matter on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the Monitor.
- (5) The Monitor must not, in any report under this section, make any comment that is adverse to any individual unless the individual has first been given a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (6) If a report prepared under this section contains information that may identify an individual caregiver or other individual delivering services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system, that information must be redacted or withheld from publication unless—
  - (a) the individual concerned consents to the information being included in the report; or
  - (b) the Monitor or the chief executive of the agency (as applicable) considers that the public interest in including the information in the report outweighs the individual's privacy interests.
- (7) However, the exception in subsection (6) may not be relied on if release of the information may identify any child or young person who has received services or support through the Oranga Tamariki system from an individual referred to in that subsection.

No power for Monitor to review courts or tribunals

53 No power for Monitor to review courts or tribunals

- (1) Despite anything in this Act, the Monitor may not review any decision or recommendation, or any act or omission, of a court or a tribunal when the Monitor is performing the monitoring function under this Act.
- (2) If a matter is the subject of proceedings before a court or tribunal, the Monitor must not commence or continue a review into the matter until the proceedings are finally determined.

Compare: 2003 No 121 s 18

Notification of certain matters

53A Monitor must notify certain matters

The Monitor must notify the person (or persons) prescribed by regulations made under section 56(1)(a) if the Monitor becomes aware of any non-compliance with national care standards regulations or any other matter that places a child or young person in care or custody at immediate risk of suffering, or being likely to suffer, serious harm.

Referrals

54 Referrals of matters

(1AAA) This section applies when—

- (a) the Monitor is performing or exercising their functions, duties, or powers under this Act:
  - (b) an Ombudsman is performing or exercising their duties or powers under this Act or functions, duties, or powers under the Ombudsmen Act 1975.
- (1) ~~If, when performing their functions under this Act,~~ the Monitor or an Ombudsman considers that the subject matter of an inquiry, review, investigation, complaint, or other function relates (whether in whole or in part) to a matter that is more properly within the scope of the functions of a person or body specified in subsection (4), the Monitor or the Ombudsman must, without delay, consult that person or body to determine the appropriate means of dealing with the subject matter.
- (2) As soon as practicable after consulting the person or body, the Monitor or the Ombudsman must determine whether the subject matter should be dealt with, in whole or in part, under this Act.
- (3) If the Monitor or the Ombudsman determines that the subject matter should be dealt with, in whole or in part, by one of the persons or bodies specified in subsection (4), the Monitor or the Ombudsman must, without delay,—

Children and Young People’s Commission

Subpart 1—Preliminary provisions

82 Overview

- (1) This Part replaces the Children’s Commissioner Act 2003.
- (2) This subpart states the purpose of this Part, defines terms used in this Part, and contains other preliminary provisions.
- (3) Subpart 2 establishes the Children and Young People’s Commission (the Commission) and contains provisions relating to its governance and its functions, duties, and powers.

- (4) Subpart 3 deals with the collection, use, and disclosure of information by the Commission, referrals by the Commission, and various other matters, including providing for a review of this Part, ~~the repeal of the Children's Commissioner Act 2003, and consequential amendments to other legislation no later than 3 years after its commencement.~~
- (4A) Subpart 4 ~~repeals the Children's Commissioner Act 2003 and consequentially amends other legislation.~~
- (5) This section is only a guide to the general scheme and effect of this Part.

83 Purpose of this Part

The purpose of this Part is to establish the Children and Young People's Commission to promote and advance the rights, interests, and participation of children and young people and to improve their well-being within (without limitation) the context of their families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities.

84 Principles

The Commission must have regard to the following matters when performing or exercising its functions, duties, or powers under this Part:

- (a) the Children's Convention:
- (b) the child or young person within (without limitation) the context of their family, whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities:
- (c) the diversity of children and young people in all its forms:
- (d) the need for high aspirations for the well-being of all children and young people, including responsive systems and structures that support them:
- (e) the need to give priority to the children and young people who are disadvantaged, and the issues affecting them:
- (f) the need to hear from, and be informed by, children and young people:
- (g) other international instruments relevant to, and that affect, children and young people.

85 Tiriti o Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi

In order to recognise and respect the Crown's responsibility to give effect to te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi, and to improve the well-being of children and young people within (without limitation) the context of their whānau, hapū, iwi, and communities,—

- (aaa) section 92(1)(aa) requires the Commission to have, on a collective basis, among its board members knowledge and understanding of te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi; and
- (a) section 92(2) requires that at least half of the board members have Māori knowledge and experience in, and knowledge of, tikanga Māori; and

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People’s Commission Bill

Part 5 cl 86

- (b) section 94 provides that a nominations panel convened for a vacancy on the board must include people with expertise and experience in Māori leadership; and
- (c) section 96(1)(a) provides that the duties of the board include building and maintaining relationships with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations, including by—
  - (i) having a strong focus on the rights, interests, and well-being of Māori children and young people within the context of their whānau, hapū, and iwi:
  - (ii) setting strategic priorities and work programmes that support improved outcomes for Māori children and young people within the context of their whānau, hapū, and iwi:
  - (iii) promoting Māori participation and leadership and te ao Māori approaches in the performance of its functions, as appropriate; and
- (d) section 99(g) provides that it is a function of the Commission to undertake and promote research into any matter that relates to the rights, interests, or well-being of children and young people, while giving special attention to te ao Māori; and
- (e) section 111(3)(a) requires the chief executive of the Commission to make reasonable efforts to consult hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations when making information rules relating to the collection, use, and disclosure of information by the Commission; and
- (f) section 118(2)(b) requires a review of this Part to consider whether the Commission is working effectively with hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations.

  - (c) provide certainty in engagement:
  - (d) minimise the burden of engagement.
- (3) The code of ethics must—
  - (a) include the information prescribed in regulations made under section 117; and
  - (b) be reviewed by the Commission at intervals not exceeding 5 years or any shorter intervals prescribed by regulations made under section 117.
- (4) When developing the code of ethics, or any amendments to the code of ethics, the Commission must consult the persons prescribed by regulations made under section 117.
- (5) The Commission must publish the code of ethics on an Internet site maintained by or behalf of the Commission.

Subpart 3—Inquiries and other matters

Provisions relating to inquiries by Commission

107 Special powers to call for information or documents

- (1) If the conditions stated in subsection (2) are satisfied, the Commission may, by notice in writing, require any person—
  - (a) to provide the Commission, or a specified employee of the Commission, with any information that the Commission requires; or
  - (b) to produce to the Commission, or to a specified employee of the Commission, any document in the custody or under the control of that person, and to allow copies of, or extracts from, the document to be made or taken; or
  - (c) to provide the Commission, or a specified employee of the Commission, with copies or extracts from documents in the custody or under the control of that person.
- (2) The conditions are that—

- (a) the Commission believes, on reasonable grounds, that the exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1) is necessary to enable it to carry out an inquiry; and
  - (b) the Commission believes, on reasonable grounds, that—
    - (i) it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the information or document from another source; or
    - (ii) for the purposes of the inquiry, it is necessary to obtain the information or document to verify or refute information obtained from another source.
- (3) However, the Commission must not require any personal information to be provided under this section unless that information can be provided in a form in which—
- (a) personal identifiers (for example, name or address) have been removed; and
  - (b) the individual concerned cannot otherwise reasonably be identified.

Compare: 2003 No 121 s 20

108 Compliance with section 107

- (1) A person to whom a notice under section 107 is given must, without charge, comply with the requirement stated in the notice in the manner and within a period (being not less than 20 working days after the notice is given to the person) specified in the notice.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not require a person to provide any information or produce any document that would be privileged in a court of law.

Compare: 2003 No 121 s 21(1), (2)

109 Commission and staff must maintain secrecy

- (1) The Commission and every employee of the Commission must maintain secrecy in respect of all matters that come to the knowledge of the Commission or the employee in the course of any inquiry.
- (2) Despite anything in subsection (1), the Commission or any employee of the Commission acting with the authority of the Commission may disclose any matter that, in the Commission's opinion, ought to be disclosed for the purposes of giving effect to—
  - (a) this Part; or
  - (b) the Commission's obligations under any other legislation; or
  - (c) information privacy principle 6 set out in section 22 of the Privacy Act 2020 (which relates to access to personal information).
- (3) The power conferred by subsection (2)(a) does not extend to—
  - (a) any matter that might prejudice—

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

- (i) the security, defence, or international relations of New Zealand (including New Zealand's relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation); or
  - (ii) any interest protected by section 7 of the Official Information Act 1982; or
  - (iii) the maintenance of the law, including the prevention, investigation, or detection of offences; or
  - (b) any matter that might involve the disclosure of the deliberations of Cabinet; or
  - (c) any information, answer, document, paper, or thing obtained by the Commission by reason only of compliance with a requirement specified in section 107(1).
- (4) The power conferred by subsection (2)(c) is subject to sections 49 to 53 of the Privacy Act 2020.
- Compare: 2003 No 121 s 22

110 Procedure for inquiries

The Commission may regulate the procedure for any inquiry under this Part in any manner, not inconsistent with this Part, that the Commission thinks fit.

Compare: 2003 No 121 s 26

Information rules

111 Information rules

- (1) The Commission must make rules (information rules) relating to the collection, use, and disclosure of information by the Commission to ensure protection of the privacy of persons to whom personal information relates, and the confidentiality of other information.
- (2) The information rules must support the performance of the Commission's inquiry function under section 99(i) and protect the privacy of children, young people, their families, and whānau.
- (3) When making information rules, the Commission must—
  - (a) make reasonable efforts to consult interested or affected agencies, including hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations; and
  - (b) consult the Privacy Commissioner.
- (4) Information rules made under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

112 Content of information rules

Information rules made under section 111 must contain rules relating to—

- (a) the collection of information under section 107:

- (b) the methods of collecting information:
- (c) the use of information (for example, that information may only be used by approved staff):
- (d) the storage and disposal of information (for example, how information is to be kept separate from other information held by the Commission):
- (e) the accuracy and completeness of information (for example, procedures for confirming or validating information):
- (f) the disclosure of information by the Commission:
- (g) the operational procedures to support the exchange of information between hapū, iwi, and Māori organisations and the Commission.

Sharing of information

113 Sharing of information with Monitor and Ombudsman

- (1) The Commission, the Monitor, and an Ombudsman may share information with each other if the provider of the information believes either or both of the following apply:
  - (a) the sharing of the information would minimise the burden on individuals and agencies:
  - (b) the sharing of the information would assist the Commission, the Monitor, or an Ombudsman in the performance—~~of each~~ of their functions, duties, and powers.
- (2) Any information received by the Commission, the Monitor, or an Ombudsman under this Part may only be used in connection with,—
  - (aaa) in the case of the Commission, the performance or exercise of its functions, duties, or powers ~~under this Part~~:
  - (a) in the case of the Monitor, the performance or exercise of the Monitor's functions, duties, ~~and~~ or powers under the Parts 1 to 4 of the Oversight of the Oranga Tamariki System and Children and Young People's Commission Act 2021:
  - (b) ~~in the case of an Ombudsman, the performance or exercise of an Ombudsman's functions, duties, or powers under this Part or the Ombudsmen Act 1975.~~
  - (b) in the case of an Ombudsman, the exercise of their jurisdiction under subpart 2 of Part 2 of the Oversight of the Oranga Tamariki System and Children and Young People's Commission Act 2021 or the Ombudsmen Act 1975.
- (3) Information may be provided under this section whether or not a request has been made.
- (4) The Commission, the Monitor, or an Ombudsman may decline a request for the sharing of information under this section.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

Part 5 cl 114

- (5) This section overrides section 21 of the Ombudsmen Act 1975.

Reports of interference or non-compliance

114 Commission may report interference or non-compliance

- (1) The Commission may report to the chief executive of a department or an agency, or to any Minister responsible for the department or agency, if—
- (a) the Commission considers there has been interference with the performance of the Commission's functions under this Part; or
  - (b) ~~an individual or an~~ the department or agency has not complied with a requirement from the Commission to provide information under section 107, and there are no grounds on which the information could be withheld.
- (2) The Commission may publicly notify the matter on an Internet site maintained by or on behalf of the Commission.
- (3) However, the Commission must not, in any report under this section or any published report, make any comment that is adverse to any ~~individual department~~ individual department or agency unless the ~~individual department~~ individual department or agency has first been given a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (4) If a report prepared under this section contains information that may identify an individual, the information must be redacted or withheld from publication unless—
- (a) ~~the information is about—~~
    - (i) ~~an individual caregiver; or~~
    - (ii) ~~any other individual delivering services or support to children and young people through the Oranga Tamariki system; and~~
  - (b) either—
    - (i) ~~the individual concerned consents to their personal information being included in the report; or~~
    - (ii) ~~the Commission or the chief executive of the agency (as applicable) considers that the public interest in including the personal information in the report outweighs the individual's privacy interests.~~
- (a) the individual concerned consents to their personal information being included in the report; or
  - (b) the Commission or the chief executive of the department or agency (as applicable) considers that the public interest in including the personal information in the report outweighs the individual's privacy interests.
- (5) However, the exception in subsection (4) may not be relied on if the information may identify any child or young person.

Referrals

115 Referral of matters

- (1) If, when performing functions under this Part, the Commission considers that the subject matter relates (whether in whole or in part) to a matter that is more properly within the scope of the functions of a person or body specified in subsection (4), the Commission must, without delay, consult that person or body to determine the appropriate means of dealing with the subject matter.
- (2) As soon as practicable after consulting the person or body, the Commission must determine whether the subject matter should be dealt with, in whole or in part, under this Part.
- (3) If the Commission determines that the subject matter should be dealt with, in whole or in part, by one of the persons or bodies specified in subsection (4), the Commission must, ~~without delay,~~—

- (2) Despite anything in this Act, the person is to be treated, for the purposes of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956, as being employed in the Government service as long as the person continues to be a board member or employee of the Commission.
- (3) The Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956 applies to the person in all respects as if the person's service as a board member or employee of the Commission were Government service.
- (4) Subclause (1) does not entitle a person to become a contributor to the Government Superannuation Fund if the person has ceased to be a contributor.
- (5) For the purpose of applying the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956, the chief executive of the Commission is the controlling authority.

Compare: 2003 No 121 Schedule 1 cl 6

Assets and liabilities

7 Transfer of Children's Commissioner's assets and liabilities to Commission

- (1) All residual assets, liabilities, agreements, leases, and licence arrangements of the Children's Commissioner in existence immediately before commencement vests in the Crown as assets or liabilities of the Commission on and after commencement.
- (2) All information held by the Children's Commissioner immediately before commencement is transferred to the Commission on commencement.
- (3) All money payable to or by the Children's Commissioner immediately before commencement becomes payable to or by the Commission on and after commencement.
- (4) Unless the context otherwise requires, anything done, omitted to be done, or to be done by, or in relation to, the Children's Commissioner is to be treated as having been done, having been omitted to be done, or having to be done by, or in relation to, the Commission.

Inquiries, reviews, and investigations under former Act

8 Continuation or completion of inquiries, reviews, and investigations under former Act

- (1) This clause applies to any inquiry, review, or investigation commenced by the Children's Commissioner under the former Act before commencement but not completed by the close of day immediately before commencement.
- (2) The complaint, inquiry, review, or investigation may be continued or completed on and after commencement by the Commission under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Schedule 3
United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

ss 86, 87

Convention on the Rights of the Child

Preamble

The States Parties to the present Convention,

Considering that, in accordance with the principles proclaimed in the Charter of the United Nations, recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world,

Bearing in mind that the peoples of the United Nations have, in the Charter, reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights and in the dignity and worth of the human person, and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Recognizing that the United Nations has, in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the International Covenants on Human Rights, proclaimed and agreed that everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth therein, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status,

Recalling that, in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations has proclaimed that childhood is entitled to special care and assistance,

Convinced that the family, as the fundamental group of society and the natural environment for the growth and well-being of all its members and particularly children, should be afforded the necessary protection and assistance so that it can fully assume its responsibilities within the community,

Recognizing that the child, for the full and harmonious development of his or her personality, should grow up in a family environment, in an atmosphere of happiness, love and understanding,

Considering that the child should be fully prepared to live an individual life in society and brought up in the spirit of the ideals proclaimed in the Charter of the United Nations, and in particular in the spirit of peace, dignity, tolerance, freedom, equality and solidarity,

Bearing in mind that the need to extend particular care to the child has been stated in the Geneva Declaration of the Rights of the Child of 1924 and in the Declaration of the Rights of the Child adopted by the General Assembly on 20 November 1959 and recognized in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (in particular in Articles 23 and 24), in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (in particular in Article

10) and in the statutes and relevant instruments of specialized agencies and international organisations concerned with the welfare of children,

Bearing in mind that, as indicated in the Declaration of the Rights of the Child, “the child, by reason of his physical and mental immaturity, needs special safeguards and care, including appropriate legal protection, before as well as after birth”,

Recalling the provisions of the Declaration on Social and Legal Principles relating to the Protection and Welfare of Children, with Special Reference to Foster Placement and Adoption Nationally and Internationally; the United Nations Standard Minimum Rules for the Administration of Juvenile Justice (The Beijing Rules); and the Declaration on the Protection of Women and Children in Emergency and Armed Conflict,

Recognizing that, in all countries in the world, there are children living in exceptionally difficult conditions and that such children need special consideration,

Taking due account of the importance of the traditions and cultural values of each people for the protection and harmonious development of the child,

Recognizing the importance of international co-operation for improving the living conditions of children in every country, in particular in the developing countries,

Have agreed as follows:

Part I

Article 1

For the purposes of the present Convention, a child means every human being below the age of eighteen years unless, under the law applicable to the child, majority is attained earlier.

Article 2

1. States Parties shall respect and ensure the rights set forth in the present Convention to each child within their jurisdiction without discrimination of any kind, irrespective of the child's or his or her parent's or legal guardian's race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social origin, property, disability, birth or other status.
2. States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that the child is protected against all forms of discrimination or punishment on the basis of the status, activities, expressed opinions, or beliefs of the child's parents, legal guardians, or family members.

Article 3

1. In all actions concerning children, whether undertaken by public or private social welfare institutions, courts of law, administrative authorities or legislative bodies, the best interests of the child shall be a primary consideration.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

2. States Parties undertake to ensure the child such protection and care as is necessary for his or her well-being, taking into account the rights and duties of his or her parents, legal guardians, or other individuals legally responsible for him or her, and, to this end, shall take all appropriate legislative and administrative measures.
3. States Parties shall ensure that the institutions, services and facilities responsible for the care or protection of children shall conform with the standards established by competent authorities, particularly in the areas of safety, health, in the number and suitability of their staff, as well as competent supervision.

Article 4

States Parties shall undertake all appropriate legislative, administrative, and other measures for the implementation of the rights recognized in the present Convention. With regard to economic, social and cultural rights, States Parties shall undertake such measures to the maximum extent of their available resources and, where needed, within the framework of international co-operation.

Article 5

States Parties shall respect the responsibilities, rights and duties of parents or, where applicable, the members of the extended family or community as provided for by local custom, legal guardians or other persons legally responsible for the child, to provide, in a manner consistent with the evolving capacities of the child, appropriate direction and guidance in the exercise by the child of the rights recognized in the present Convention.

Article 6

1. States Parties recognize that every child has the inherent right to life.
2. States Parties shall ensure to the maximum extent possible the survival and development of the child.

Article 7

1. The child shall be registered immediately after birth and shall have the right from birth to a name, the right to acquire a nationality and, as far as possible, the right to know and be cared for by his or her parents.
2. States Parties shall ensure the implementation of these rights in accordance with their national law and their obligations under the relevant international instruments in this field, in particular where the child would otherwise be stateless.

Article 8

1. States Parties undertake to respect the right of the child to preserve his or her identity, including nationality, name and family relations as recognized by law without unlawful interference.
2. Where a child is illegally deprived of some or all of the elements of his or her identity, States Parties shall provide appropriate assistance and protection, with a view to re-establishing speedily his or her identity.

Article 9

1. States Parties shall ensure that a child shall not be separated from his or her parents against their will, except when competent authorities subject to judicial review determine, in accordance with applicable law and procedures, that such separation is necessary for the best interests of the child. Such determination may be necessary in a particular case such as one involving abuse or neglect of the child by the parents, or one where the parents are living separately and a decision must be made as to the child's place of residence.
2. In any proceedings pursuant to paragraph 1 of the present Article, all interested parties shall be given an opportunity to participate in the proceedings and make their views known.
3. States Parties shall respect the right of the child who is separated from one or both parents to maintain personal relations and direct contact with both parents on a regular basis, except if it is contrary to the child's best interests.
4. Where such separation results from any action initiated by a State Party, such as the detention, imprisonment, exile, deportation or death (including death arising from any cause while the person is in the custody of the State) of one or both parents or of the child, that State Party shall, upon request, provide the parents, the child or, if appropriate, another member of the family with the essential information concerning the whereabouts of the absent member(s) of the family unless the provision of the information would be detrimental to the well-being of the child. States Parties shall further ensure that the submission of such a request shall of itself entail no adverse consequences for the person(s) concerned.

Article 10

1. In accordance with the obligation of States Parties under Article 9, paragraph 1, applications by a child or his or her parents to enter or leave a State Party for the purpose of family reunification shall be dealt with by States Parties in a positive, humane and expeditious manner. States Parties shall further ensure that the submission of such a request shall entail no adverse consequences for the applicants and for the members of their family.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

---

2. A child whose parents reside in different States shall have the right to maintain on a regular basis, save in exceptional circumstances personal relations and direct contacts with both parents. Towards that end and in accordance with the obligation of States Parties under Article 9, paragraph 1, States Parties shall respect the right of the child and his or her parents to leave any country, including their own, subject only to such restrictions as are prescribed by law and which are necessary to protect the national security, public order (ordre public), public health or morals or the rights and freedoms of others and are consistent with the other rights recognized in the present Convention.

Article 11

1. States Parties shall take measures to combat the illicit transfer and non-return of children abroad.
2. To this end, States Parties shall promote the conclusion of bilateral or multilateral agreements or accession to existing agreements.

Article 12

1. States Parties shall assure to the child who is capable of forming his or her own views the right to express those views freely in all matters affecting the child, the views of the child being given due weight in accordance with the age and maturity of the child.
2. For this purpose, the child shall in particular be provided the opportunity to be heard in any judicial and administrative proceedings affecting the child, either directly, or through a representative or an appropriate body, in a manner consistent with the procedural rules of national law.

Article 13

1. The child shall have the right to freedom of expression; this right shall include freedom to seek, receive and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of frontiers, either orally, in writing or in print, in the form of art, or through any other media of the child's choice.
2. The exercise of this right may be subject to certain restrictions, but these shall only be such as are provided by law and are necessary:
  - (a) For respect of the rights or reputations of others; or
  - (b) For the protection of national security or of public order (ordre public), or of public health or morals.

Article 14

1. States Parties shall respect the right of the child to freedom of thought, conscience and religion.

2. States Parties shall respect the rights and duties of the parents and, when applicable, legal guardians, to provide direction to the child in the exercise of his or her right in a manner consistent with the evolving capacities of the child.
3. Freedom to manifest one's religion or beliefs may be subject only to such limitations as are prescribed by law and are necessary to protect public safety, order, health or morals, or the fundamental rights and freedoms of others.

Article 15

1. States Parties recognize the rights of the child to freedom of association and to freedom of peaceful assembly.
2. No restrictions may be placed on the exercise of these rights other than those imposed in conformity with the law and which are necessary in a democratic society in the interests of national security or public safety, public order (ordre public), the protection of public health or morals or the protection of the rights and freedoms of others.

Article 16

1. No child shall be subjected to arbitrary or unlawful interference with his or her privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to unlawful attacks on his or her honour and reputation.
2. The child has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Article 17

States Parties recognize the important function performed by the mass media and shall ensure that the child has access to information and material from a diversity of national and international sources, especially those aimed at the promotion of his or her social, spiritual and moral well-being and physical and mental health. To this end, States Parties shall:

- (a) Encourage the mass media to disseminate information and material of social and cultural benefit to the child and in accordance with the spirit of Article 29;
- (b) Encourage international co-operation in the production, exchange and dissemination of such information and material from a diversity of cultural, national and international sources;
- (c) Encourage the production and dissemination of children's books;
- (d) Encourage the mass media to have particular regard to the linguistic needs of the child who belongs to a minority group or who is indigenous;
- (e) Encourage the development of appropriate guidelines for the protection of the child from information and material injurious to his or her well-being, bearing in mind the provisions of Articles 13 and 18.

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

---

Article 18

1. States Parties shall use their best efforts to ensure recognition of the principle that both parents have common responsibilities for the upbringing and development of the child. Parents or, as the case may be, legal guardians, have the primary responsibility for the upbringing and development of the child. The best interests of the child will be their basic concern.
2. For the purpose of guaranteeing and promoting the rights set forth in the present Convention, States Parties shall render appropriate assistance to parents and legal guardians in the performance of their child-rearing responsibilities and shall ensure the development of institutions, facilities and services for the care of children.
3. States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that children of working parents have the right to benefit from child-care services and facilities for which they are eligible.

Article 19

1. States Parties shall take all appropriate legislative, administrative, social and educational measures to protect the child from all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse, while in the care of parent(s), legal guardian(s) or any other person who has the care of the child.
2. Such protective measures should, as appropriate, include effective procedures for the establishment of social programmes to provide necessary support for the child and for those who have the care of the child, as well as for other forms of prevention and for identification, reporting, referral, investigation, treatment and follow-up of instances of child maltreatment described heretofore, and, as appropriate, for judicial involvement.

Article 20

1. A child temporarily or permanently deprived of his or her family environment, or in whose own best interests cannot be allowed to remain in that environment, shall be entitled to special protection and assistance provided by the State.
2. States Parties shall in accordance with their national laws ensure alternative care for such a child.
3. Such care could include, inter alia, foster placement, kafalah of Islamic law, adoption or if necessary placement in suitable institutions for the care of children. When considering solutions, due regard shall be paid to the desirability of continuity in a child's upbringing and to the child's ethnic, religious, cultural and linguistic background.

Article 21

States Parties that recognize and/or permit the system of adoption shall ensure that the best interests of the child shall be the paramount consideration and they shall:

- (a) Ensure that the adoption of a child is authorized only by competent authorities who determine, in accordance with applicable law and procedures and on the basis of all pertinent and reliable information, that the adoption is permissible in view of the child's status concerning parents, relatives and legal guardians and that, if required, the persons concerned have given their informed consent to the adoption on the basis of such counselling as may be necessary;
- (b) Recognize that inter-country adoption may be considered as an alternative means of child's care, if the child cannot be placed in a foster or an adoptive family or cannot in any suitable manner be cared for in the child's country of origin;
- (c) Ensure that the child concerned by inter-country adoption enjoys safeguards and standards equivalent to those existing in the case of national adoption;
- (d) Take all appropriate measures to ensure that, in inter-country adoption the placement does not result in improper financial gain for those involved in it;
- (e) Promote, where appropriate, the objectives of the present Article by concluding bilateral or multilateral arrangements or agreements, and endeavour, within this framework, to ensure that the placement of the child in another country is carried out by competent authorities or organs.

Article 22

1. States Parties shall take appropriate measures to ensure that a child who is seeking refugee status or who is considered a refugee in accordance with applicable international or domestic law and procedures shall, whether unaccompanied or accompanied by his or her parents or by any other person, receive appropriate protection and humanitarian assistance in the enjoyment of applicable rights set forth in the present Convention and in other international human rights or humanitarian instruments to which the said States are Parties.
2. For this purpose, States Parties shall provide, as they consider appropriate, co-operation in any efforts by the United Nations and other competent intergovernmental organizations or non-governmental organizations co-operating with the United Nations to protect and assist such a child and to trace the parents or other members of the family of any refugee child in order to obtain information necessary for reunification with his or her family. In cases where no parents or other members of the family can be found, the child shall be accorded the same protection as any other child permanently or temporarily deprived of his or her family environment for any reason, as set forth in the present Convention.

Article 23

1. States Parties recognize that a mentally or physically disabled child should enjoy a full and decent life, in conditions which ensure dignity, promote self-reliance and facilitate the child's active participation in the community.
2. States Parties recognize the right of the disabled child to special care and shall encourage and ensure the extension, subject to available resources, to the eligible child and those responsible for his or her care, of assistance for which application is made and which is appropriate to the child's condition and to the circumstances of the parents or others caring for the child.
3. Recognizing the special needs of a disabled child, assistance extended in accordance with paragraph 2 of the present Article shall be provided free of charge, whenever possible, taking into account the financial resources of the parents or others caring for the child, and shall be designed to ensure that the disabled child has effective access to and receives education, training, health care services, rehabilitation services, preparation for employment and recreation opportunities in a manner conducive to the child's achieving the fullest possible social integration and individual development, including his or her cultural and spiritual development.
4. States Parties shall promote, in the spirit of international cooperation, the exchange of appropriate information in the field of preventive health care and of medical, psychological and functional treatment of disabled children, including dissemination of and access to information concerning methods of rehabilitation, education and vocational services, with the aim of enabling States Parties to improve their capabilities and skills and to widen their experience in these areas. In this regard, particular account shall be taken of the needs of developing countries.

Article 24

1. States Parties recognize the right of the child to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health and to facilities for the treatment of illness and rehabilitation of health. States Parties shall strive to ensure that no child is deprived of his or her right of access to such health care services.
2. States Parties shall pursue full implementation of this right and, in particular, shall take appropriate measures:
  - (a) To diminish infant and child mortality;
  - (b) To ensure the provision of necessary medical assistance and health care to all children with emphasis on the development of primary health care;
  - (c) To combat disease and malnutrition, including within the framework of primary health care, through, inter alia, the application of readily available technology and through the provision of adequate nutritious foods

- and clean drinking-water, taking into consideration the dangers and risks of environmental pollution;
- (d) To ensure appropriate pre-natal and post-natal health care for mothers;
  - (e) To ensure that all segments of society, in particular parents and children, are informed, have access to education and are supported in the use of basic knowledge of child health and nutrition, the advantages of breast-feeding, hygiene and environmental sanitation and the prevention of accidents;
  - (f) To develop preventive health care, guidance for parents and family planning education and services.
3. States Parties shall take all effective and appropriate measures with a view to abolishing traditional practices prejudicial to the health of children.
  4. States Parties undertake to promote and encourage international co-operation with a view to achieving progressively the full realisation of the right recognized in the present Article. In this regard, particular account shall be taken of the needs of developing countries.

Article 25

States Parties recognize the right of a child who has been placed by the competent authorities for the purposes of care, protection or treatment of his or her physical or mental health, to a periodic review of the treatment provided to the child and all other circumstances relevant to his or her placement.

Article 26

1. States Parties shall recognize for every child the right to benefit from social security, including social insurance, and shall take the necessary measures to achieve the full realisation of this right in accordance with their national law.
2. The benefits should, where appropriate, be granted, taking into account the resources and the circumstances of the child and persons having responsibility for the maintenance of the child, as well as any other consideration relevant to an application for benefits made by or on behalf of the child.

Article 27

1. States Parties recognize the right of every child to a standard of living adequate for the child's physical, mental, spiritual, moral and social development.
2. The parent(s) or others responsible for the child have the primary responsibility to secure, within their abilities and financial capacities, the conditions of living necessary for the child's development.
3. States Parties, in accordance with national conditions and within their means, shall take appropriate measures to assist parents and others responsible for the child to implement this right and shall in case of need provide material assistance and support programmes, particularly with regard to nutrition, clothing and housing.

4. States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to secure the recovery of maintenance for the child from the parents or other persons having financial responsibility for the child, both within the State Party and from abroad. In particular, where the person having financial responsibility for the child lives in a State different from that of the child, States Parties shall promote the accession to international agreements or the conclusion of such agreements, as well as the making of other appropriate arrangements.

Article 28

1. States Parties recognize the right of the child to education, and with a view to achieving this right progressively and on the basis of equal opportunity, they shall, in particular:
  - (a) Make primary education compulsory and available free to all;
  - (b) Encourage the development of different forms of secondary education, including general and vocational education, make them available and accessible to every child, and take appropriate measures such as the introduction of free education and offering financial assistance in case of need;
  - (c) Make higher education accessible to all on the basis of capacity by every appropriate means;
  - (d) Make educational and vocational information and guidance available and accessible to all children;
  - (e) Take measures to encourage regular attendance at schools and the reduction of drop-out rates.
2. States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that school discipline is administered in a manner consistent with the child's human dignity and in conformity with the present Convention.
3. States Parties shall promote and encourage international cooperation in matters relating to education, in particular with a view to contributing to the elimination of ignorance and illiteracy throughout the world and facilitating access to scientific and technical knowledge and modern teaching methods. In this regard, particular account shall be taken of the needs of developing countries.

Article 29

1. States Parties agree that the education of the child shall be directed to:
  - (a) The development of the child's personality, talents and mental and physical abilities to their fullest potential;

- (b) The development of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, and for the principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations;
  - (c) The development of respect for the child's parents, his or her own cultural identity, language and values, for the national values of the country in which the child is living, the country from which he or she may originate, and for civilizations different from his or her own;
  - (d) The preparation of the child for responsible life in a free society in the spirit of understanding, peace, tolerance, equality of sexes, and friendship among all peoples, ethnic, national and religious groups and persons of indigenous origin;
  - (e) The development of respect for the natural environment.
2. No part of the present Article or Article 28 shall be construed so as to interfere with the liberty of individuals and bodies to establish and direct educational institutions, subject always to the observance of the principle set forth in paragraph 1 of the present Article and to the requirements that the education given in such institutions shall conform to such minimum standards as may be laid down by the State.

Article 30

In those States in which ethnic, religious or linguistic minorities or persons of indigenous origin exist, a child belonging to such a minority or who is indigenous shall not be denied the right, in community with other members of his or her group, to enjoy his or her own culture, or profess and practise his or her own religion, or to use his or her own language.

Article 31

1. States Parties recognize the right of the child to rest and leisure, to engage in play and recreational activities appropriate to the age of the child and to participate freely in cultural life and the arts.
2. States Parties shall respect and promote the right of the child to participate fully in cultural and artistic life and shall encourage the provision of appropriate and equal opportunities for cultural, artistic, recreational and leisure activity.

Article 32

1. States Parties recognize the right of the child to be protected from economic exploitation and from performing any work that is likely to be hazardous or to interfere with the child's education, or to be harmful to the child's health or physical, mental, spiritual, moral or social development.
2. States Parties shall take legislative, administrative, social and educational measures to ensure the implementation of the present Article. To this end, and having regard to the relevant provisions of other international instruments, States Parties shall in particular:

- (a) Provide for a minimum age or minimum ages for admission to employment;
- (b) Provide for appropriate regulation of the hours and conditions of employment;
- (c) Provide for appropriate penalties or other sanctions to ensure the effective enforcement of the present Article.

Article 33

States Parties shall take all appropriate measures, including legislative, administrative, social and educational measures, to protect children from the illicit use of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances as defined in the relevant international treaties, and to prevent the use of children in the illicit production and trafficking of such substances.

Article 34

States Parties undertake to protect the child from all forms of sexual exploitation and sexual abuse. For these purposes, States Parties shall in particular take all appropriate national, bilateral and multilateral measures to prevent:

- (a) The inducement or coercion of a child to engage in any unlawful sexual activity;
- (b) The exploitative use of children in prostitution or other unlawful sexual practices;
- (c) The exploitative use of children in pornographic performances and materials.

Article 35

States Parties shall take all appropriate national, bilateral and multilateral measures to prevent the abduction of, the sale of or traffic in children for any purpose or in any form.

Article 36

States Parties shall protect the child against all other forms of exploitation prejudicial to any aspects of the child's welfare.

Article 37

States Parties shall ensure that:

- (a) No child shall be subjected to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment. Neither capital punishment nor life imprisonment without possibility of release shall be imposed for offences committed by persons below eighteen years of age;

- (b) No child shall be deprived of his or her liberty unlawfully or arbitrarily. The arrest, detention or imprisonment of a child shall be in conformity with the law and shall be used only as a measure of last resort and for the shortest appropriate period of time;
- (c) Every child deprived of liberty shall be treated with humanity and respect for the inherent dignity of the human person, and in a manner which takes into account the needs of persons of his or her age. In particular, every child deprived of liberty shall be separated from adults unless it is considered in the child's best interest not to do so and shall have the right to maintain contact with his or her family through correspondence and visits, save in exceptional circumstances;
- (d) Every child deprived of his or her liberty shall have the right to prompt access to legal and other appropriate assistance, as well as the right to challenge the legality of the deprivation of his or her liberty before a court or other competent, independent and impartial authority, and to a prompt decision on any such action.

Article 38

1. States Parties undertake to respect and to ensure respect for rules of international humanitarian law applicable to them in armed conflicts which are relevant to the child.
2. States Parties shall take all feasible measures to ensure that persons who have not attained the age of fifteen years do not take a direct part in hostilities.
3. States Parties shall refrain from recruiting any person who has not attained the age of fifteen years into their armed forces. In recruiting among those persons who have attained the age of fifteen years but who have not attained the age of eighteen years, States Parties shall endeavour to give priority to those who are oldest.
4. In accordance with their obligations under international humanitarian law to protect the civilian population in armed conflicts, States Parties shall take all feasible measures to ensure protection and care of children who are affected by an armed conflict.

Article 39

States Parties shall take all appropriate measures to promote physical and psychological recovery and social reintegration of a child victim of: any form of neglect, exploitation, or abuse; torture or any other form of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment; or armed conflicts. Such recovery and reintegration shall take place in an environment which fosters the health, self-respect and dignity of the child.

Article 40

1. States Parties recognize the right of every child alleged as, accused of, or recognized as having infringed the penal law to be treated in a manner consistent with the promotion of the child's sense of dignity and worth, which reinforces the child's respect for the human rights and fundamental freedoms of others and which takes into account the child's age and the desirability of promoting the child's reintegration and the child's assuming a constructive role in society.
2. To this end, and having regard to the relevant provisions of international instruments, States Parties shall, in particular, ensure that:
  - (a) No child shall be alleged as, be accused of, or recognized as having infringed the penal law by reason of acts or omissions that were not prohibited by national or international law at the time they were committed;
  - (b) Every child alleged as or accused of having infringed the penal law has at least the following guarantees:
    - (i) To be presumed innocent until proven guilty according to law;
    - (ii) To be informed promptly and directly of the charges against him or her, and, if appropriate through his or her parents or legal guardians, and to have legal or other appropriate assistance in the preparation and presentation of his or her defence;
    - (iii) To have the matter determined without delay by a competent, independent and impartial authority or judicial body in a fair hearing according to law, in the presence of legal or other appropriate assistance and, unless it is considered not to be in the best interest of the child, in particular taking into account his or her age or situation, his or her parents or legal guardians;
    - (iv) Not to be compelled to give testimony or to confess guilt; to examine or have examined adverse witnesses and to obtain the participation and examination of witnesses on his or her behalf under conditions of equality;
    - (v) If considered to have infringed the penal law, to have this decision and any measures imposed in consequence thereof reviewed by a higher competent, independent and impartial authority or judicial body according to law;
    - (vi) To have the free assistance of an interpreter if the child cannot understand or speak the language used;
    - (vii) To have his or her privacy fully respected at all stages of the proceedings.
3. States Parties shall seek to promote the establishment of laws, procedures, authorities and institutions specifically applicable to children alleged as, accused of, or recognized as having infringed the penal law, and, in particular:

- (a) The establishment of a minimum age below which children shall be presumed not to have the capacity to infringe the penal law;
  - (b) Whenever appropriate and desirable, measures for dealing with such children without resorting to judicial proceedings providing that human rights and legal safeguards are fully respected.
4. A variety of dispositions, such as care, guidance and supervision orders; counselling; probation; foster care; education and vocational training programmes and other alternatives to institutional care shall be available to ensure that children are dealt with in a manner appropriate to their well-being and proportionate both to their circumstances and the offence.

Article 41

Nothing in the present Convention shall affect any provisions which are more conducive to the realization of the rights of the child and which may be contained in:

- (a) The law of a State party; or
- (b) International law in force for that State.

Part II

Article 42

States Parties undertake to make the principles and provisions of the Convention widely known, by appropriate and active means, to adults and children alike.

Article 43

1. For the purpose of examining the progress made by States Parties in achieving the realization of the obligations undertaken in the present Convention, there shall be established a Committee on the Rights of the Child, which shall carry out the functions hereinafter provided.
2. The Committee shall consist of ten experts of high moral standing and recognized competence in the field covered by this Convention. The members of the Committee shall be elected by States Parties from among their nationals and shall serve in their personal capacity, consideration being given to equitable geographical distribution, as well as to the principal legal systems.
3. The members of the Committee shall be elected by secret ballot from a list of persons nominated by States Parties. Each State Party may nominate one person from among its own nationals.
4. The initial election to the Committee shall be held no later than six months after the date of the entry into force of the present Convention and thereafter every second year. At least four months before the date of each election, the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall address a letter to States Parties inviting them to submit their nominations within two months. The Secretary-

General shall subsequently prepare a list in alphabetical order of all persons thus nominated, indicating States Parties which have nominated them, and shall submit it to the States Parties to the present Convention.

5. The elections shall be held at meetings of States Parties convened by the Secretary-General at United Nations Headquarters. At those meetings, for which two thirds of States Parties shall constitute a quorum, the persons elected to the Committee shall be those who obtain the largest number of votes and an absolute majority of the votes of the representatives of States Parties present and voting.
6. The members of the Committee shall be elected for a term of four years. They shall be eligible for re-election if renominated. The term of five of the members elected at the first election shall expire at the end of two years; immediately after the first election, the names of these five members shall be chosen by lot by the Chairman of the meeting.
7. If a member of the Committee dies or resigns or declares that for any other cause he or she can no longer perform the duties of the Committee, the State Party which nominated the member shall appoint another expert from among its nationals to serve for the remainder of the term, subject to the approval of the Committee.
8. The Committee shall establish its own rules of procedure.
9. The Committee shall elect its officers for a period of two years.
10. The meetings of the Committee shall normally be held at United Nations Headquarters or at any other convenient place as determined by the Committee. The Committee shall normally meet annually. The duration of the meetings of the Committee shall be determined, and reviewed, if necessary, by a meeting of the States Parties to the present Convention, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.
11. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall provide the necessary staff and facilities for the effective performance of the functions of the Committee under the present Convention.
12. With the approval of the General Assembly, the members of the Committee established under the present Convention shall receive emoluments from United Nations resources on such terms and conditions as the Assembly may decide.

Article 44

1. States Parties undertake to submit to the Committee, through the Secretary-General of the United Nations, reports on the measures they have adopted which give effect to the rights recognized herein and on the progress made on the enjoyment of those rights

- (a) Within two years of the entry into force of the Convention for the State Party concerned;
    - (b) Thereafter every five years.
  2. Reports made under the present Article shall indicate factors and difficulties, if any, affecting the degree of fulfilment of the obligations under the present Convention. Reports shall also contain sufficient information to provide the Committee with a comprehensive understanding of the implementation of the Convention in the country concerned.
  3. A State Party which has submitted a comprehensive initial report to the Committee need not, in its subsequent reports submitted in accordance with paragraph 1 (b) of the present Article, repeat basic information previously provided.
  4. The Committee may request from States Parties further information relevant to the implementation of the Convention.
  5. The Committee shall submit to the General Assembly, through the Economic and Social Council, every two years, reports on its activities.
  6. States Parties shall make their reports widely available to the public in their own countries.

Article 45

In order to foster the effective implementation of the Convention and to encourage international co-operation in the field covered by the Convention:

- (a) The specialized agencies, the United Nations Children's Fund and other United Nations organs shall be entitled to be represented at the consideration of the implementation of such provisions of the present Convention as fall within the scope of their mandate. The Committee may invite the specialized agencies, the United Nations Children's Fund and other competent bodies as it may consider appropriate to provide expert advice on the implementation of the Convention in areas falling within the scope of their respective mandates. The Committee may invite the specialized agencies, the United Nations Children's Fund, and other United Nations organs to submit reports on the implementation of the Convention in areas falling within the scope of their activities;
- (b) The Committee shall transmit, as it may consider appropriate, to the specialized agencies, the United Nations Children's Fund and other competent bodies, any reports from States Parties that contain a request, or indicate a need, for technical advice or assistance, along with the Committee's observations and suggestions, if any, on these requests or indications;
- (c) The Committee may recommend to the General Assembly to request the Secretary-General to undertake on its behalf studies on specific issues relating to the rights of the child;

Proposed amendments to
Oversight of Oranga Tamariki System and Children
and Young People's Commission Bill

---

- (d) The Committee may make suggestions and general recommendations based on information received pursuant to Articles 44 and 45 of the present Convention. Such suggestions and general recommendations shall be transmitted to any State Party concerned and reported to the General Assembly, together with comments, if any, from States Parties.

Part III
Article 46

The present Convention shall be open for signature by all States.

Article 47

The present Convention is subject to ratification. Instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 48

The present Convention shall remain open for accession by any State. The instruments of accession shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 49

1. The present Convention shall enter into force on the thirtieth day following the date of deposit with the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession.
2. For each State ratifying or acceding to the Convention after the deposit of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession, the Convention shall enter into force on the thirtieth day after the deposit by such State of its instrument of ratification or accession.

Article 50

1. Any State Party may propose an amendment and file it with the Secretary-General of the United Nations. The Secretary-General shall thereupon communicate the proposed amendment to States Parties, with a request that they indicate whether they favour a conference of States Parties for the purpose of considering and voting upon the proposals. In the event that, within four months from the date of such communication, at least one third of the States Parties favour such a conference, the Secretary-General shall convene the conference under the auspices of the United Nations. Any amendment adopted by a majority of States Parties present and voting at the conference shall be submitted to the General Assembly for approval.

2. An amendment adopted in accordance with paragraph 1 of the present Article shall enter into force when it has been approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations and accepted by a two-thirds majority of States Parties.
3. When an amendment enters into force, it shall be binding on those States Parties which have accepted it, other States Parties still being bound by the provisions of the present Convention and any earlier amendments which they have accepted.

Article 51

1. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall receive and circulate to all States the text of reservations made by States at the time of ratification or accession.
2. A reservation incompatible with the object and purpose of the present Convention shall not be permitted.
3. Reservations may be withdrawn at any time by notification to that effect addressed to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, who shall then inform all States. Such notification shall take effect on the date on which it is received by the Secretary-General.

Article 52

A State Party may denounce the present Convention by written notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. Denunciation becomes effective one year after the date of receipt of the notification by the Secretary-General.

Article 53

The Secretary-General of the United Nations is designated as the depositary of the present Convention.

Article 54

The original of the present Convention, of which the Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish texts are equally authentic, shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

IN WITNESS THEREOF the undersigned plenipotentiaries, being duly authorized thereto by their respective governments, have signed the present Convention.
