Should it become impossible to reach agreement, any of the above-mentioned parties may refer the question to the Conciliation Commissioner for the industrial district in which the factory is situated for decision. Any party dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other parties within 21 days after such decision shall have been communicated to the party desirous of appealing.

(c) Every person who, being obliged to become a member of any union by the operation of the foregoing provisions, fails to become a member of that union when requested so to do by his employer or any officer or representative of the union, commits a breach of this award, and shall be liable accordingly.

(d) An employer shall, if requested to do so by the secretary of the local union, furnish him with a return setting out the names of all workers in his employ who are deemed to be adults under subclause (b) of this clause, but not more often than once each six months.

local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until 14 days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.
