

the premises, or any of them, have unduly behaved themselves, or hereafter shall presume to behave themselves unduly, or have been or shall happen hereafter to be careless, remiss, or negligent in our aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies. And of all and singular articles and circumstances, and all other things whatsoever that concern the premises or any of them, by whomsoever, and after what manner soever, in our aforesaid Colony, done or perpetrated, or which hereafter shall happen to be done or attempted in what manner soever. And to inspect all Indictments whatsoever so before you, or any of you, with such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, taken or to be taken, or before others late our Justices of the Peace in the aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies, made or taken, and not yet determined; and to make and continue Processes thereupon against all and singular the persons so indicted, or who before you hereafter shall happen to be so indicted, until they can be taken, surrender themselves, or be outlawed. Provided always, that if a case of difficulty upon the determination of any of the premises before you, or any one or more of you shall happen to arise, then let judgment in no wise be given thereon before you, or any of you, unless in the presence of one of our Justices of the Supreme Court of the said Colony.

And, therefore, We Command you, and each of you, and every of you, that to keep the Peace or Ordinances and Statutes, and all and singular other the Premises, you diligently apply yourselves, and that at certain days and places duly appointed, or to be appointed for these purposes into the premises, ye make enquiries, and all and singular the premises hear, and determine, and perform, and fulfil them in the aforesaid form, doing therein what to Justice appertains, according to the Law and Custom of England, saving to us the americiaments and other things to Us therefrom belonging. And We Command Our Sheriff of the said Colony, at certain days and places duly appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, to be aiding by all lawful means in the performance and due execution of the premises.

In Testimony Whereof, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Colony to be hereunto affixed.

Witness, Our Trusty and Well-beloved Robert Fitzroy, Esquire, Captain in Our Royal Navy, Our Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Our said Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at Government House, Auckland, in Our said Colony, this first day of March, in the seventh year of Our Reign, and in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

ROBERT FITZROY.

By Command,
ANDREW SINCLAIR,
Colonial Secretary.
