Auckland, December 22nd, 1845,

We, the non-official Members, have the honor hereby to place in your Excellency's hands the resignation of our seats in the Legislative Council; at the same time we beg leave to assure your Excellency that our only motive in taking this step is our belief in its propriety upon a change in the Government under the existing constitution of the Colony.

(Signed)

FRED. WHITAKER, WILLIAM DONNELLY, THEOPHILUS HEALE.

To His Excellency The Lieutenant-Governor of New Zealand.

> Government House, Auckland, 1st February, 1846.

GENTLEMEN,

I have hitherto delayed replying to the letter you addressed to me upon the 22nd December last, for several reasons. lstly. When I received that letter it did not appear to me to require an immediate answer, and I was at the time engaged in very important operations, which occupied my almost exclusive attention.

2ndly. I have not, up to this date, felt completely assured that I might not find it necessary again to assemble my Council before proceeding to the South, and I confidently calculated that your desire to promote the public interests would have led you to afford me the advantage of your services as long as I might find them necessary.

3rdly. I did not feel quite satisfied that, under the existing constitution of the Colony, a change in the Government rendered it necessary that you should tender the resignations of your seats in Council.

As, however, I feel quite satisfied that your only desire in taking the course you have done, is to promote the welfare of this country, and as I think the interests of New Zealand may be advanced by my having the power of offering seats in the Legislative Council to gentlemen of the southern portion of the Colony, I will. upon Her Majesty's behalf, accept your resignations, and report the circumstance for Her Majesty's approval. At the same time I beg you will accept my thanks for the support you afforded me when I had lately occasion to assemble you, and my assurances that it would have been in every respect most agreeable to me to have continued to co-operate with you as Members of the Legislative Council.

I have the honor to be,

&c., &c.,

(Signed) GEORGE GREY,

Lieutenant-Governor and Commanderin-Chief.

To the non-official Members of the Legislative Council, &c., &c., &c.
