Amending Regulations for Trout-fishing, Buller Acclimatization Society.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this fifteenth day of September, 1913.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 84, of the thirtieth day of the same month, regulations were made for trout-fishing in the Buller Acclimatization District:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said regulations in the manner hereinafter described:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the Fisheries Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby amend the hereinbefore-recited regulations by adding the following proviso to clause five thereof:—

“Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the placing of nets at any place in the Buller River below a straight line drawn across the said river opposite Lynhurst Street, or at any place in the Orowaiti River below the old bridge, for the purpose of taking sea-fish only in accordance with the provisions of the said Act and any regulations made thereunder, nor render any person liable to any penalty for so doing, or for taking sea-fish by such means.”

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
