Regulations as to Ships being provided with Wireless Telegraphy Apparatus.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twentieth day of October, 1913.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section fifty of the Shipping and Seamen Amendment Act, 1909, that the Governor may from time to time by Order in Council make regulations requiring ships registered in New Zealand, and carrying passengers, to be provided with apparatus for transmitting messages by means of wireless telegraphy, and may by such regulations prescribe fines not exceeding fifty pounds for any breach thereof by the owner or master of a ship: And whereas it is desirable to make such regulations:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations, and doth hereby order that they shall come into force on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and fourteen:

Provided that, if in his opinion the circumstances justify it the Minister of Marine may exempt any steamship from the operation of these regulations, and may limit the time for which any such exemption shall be in force.

REGULATIONS.

1. EVERY steamship registered in New Zealand, and carrying passengers, which is engaged in the foreign or intercolonial trade, except steamships trading to the Chatham, Auckland, Campbell, and Antipodes Islands, and every home-trade steamship which is authorized by her ordinary survey certificate to carry not less than 150 passengers at sea, shall not leave or attempt to leave any port in New Zealand unless such steamship is equipped with an efficient apparatus for radio communication in good working-order, to be operated by a person skilled in the use of such apparatus, which apparatus shall be capable of transmitting and receiving messages over a distance of at least one hundred miles, day or night.

2. Ships required by these regulations to carry the apparatus prescribed above shall be placed in the third-class as defined by Article XIII of the Detailed Service Regulations appended to the International Radio-telegraph Convention, 1912—that is, they are not bound to perform any regular listening service.

3. The Minister of Marine may appoint Inspectors for the purposes of these regulations, and such Inspectors and Superintendents of Mercantile Marine may visit any steamship required by these regulations to be equipped with apparatus
