A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the Public Works Amendment Act, 1909, it is enacted that if at any time after the issue or making of any Proclamation taking land under the Public Works Act, 1908, and before the payment or award of any compensation in respect of the taking thereof, it is found that the land, or any part thereof, is not required for the purpose for which it was taken, or that any error in form or substance exists in or in relation to that Proclamation, or the making or gazetting thereof, the Governor may, by a subsequent Proclamation gazetted, revoke the former Proclamation either wholly or so far as he thinks necessary:

And whereas it is found that the land in Block IX, Wai-iti Survey District, taken for the purposes of the Midland Railway by a Proclamation made under the Public Works Act, 1908, and dated the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (hereinafter termed "the said Proclamation"), and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 28, page 1006, of the third day of the following month, is not now required for the purpose for which it was taken: And whereas compensation in respect of the taking of the said land has not been paid or awarded:

And whereas it is found that the Proclamation taking land in Block XVI, Waihou Survey District, for the purposes of a stopbank in the River District as defined by the Waihou and Ohinemuri Rivers Improvement Act, 1910, made under the Public Works Act, 1908, and the Waihou and Ohinemuri Rivers Improvement Act, 1910, and dated the first day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (hereinafter termed "the said Proclamation"), and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 68, page 2757, of the fourth day of the same month, contains an error in substance: And whereas compensation in respect of the taking of the said land has not been paid or awarded:
