

the name of the ship is also that of a telegraph-office the word "steamship" must be inserted, but it is not to be counted or charged for.)

Name of the coast-station as it appears in the Official List of Wireless Telegraph Stations, and including the word "radio."

In the address, the name of the ship as it appears in the Official List of Wireless Telegraph Stations shall be counted in every case, and independently of its length, as one word.

A radio-telegram drawn up by means of the International signal code shall be forwarded to its destination without being decoded.

In radio-telegrams for Chatham Islands the name of the despatching coast-station need not be included in the address.

REDIRECTION.

9. When a radio-telegram reaches a coast-station on the mainland of New Zealand too late for transmission to the ship to which it is addressed, it shall be redirected without further charge to any other coast-station on the mainland of New Zealand that may be able to effect its transmission.

Relaying.

10. The sender of a radio-telegram intended for a ship may require that his telegram be transmitted to its destination by way of one or two (but not more than two) ship-stations. He shall deposit for this purpose the amount of the radio-telegraphic charges for a single transmission, and in addition, as a deposit, a sum sufficient to cover the charges for the additional transmissions prescribed. He must further pay, as he may choose, either the charge for a telegram of five words or the cost of postage of a letter to be sent by the coast-station to the station of origin, stating what portion of the deposit has been expended. The radio-telegram shall then be accepted at the risks and perils of the sender. It shall bear before the address the additional particulars, which shall be paid for, "x re-transmissions telegraph," or "x re-transmissions letter" (x representing the number of re-transmissions required by the sender), according to the method by which the sender desires that the information respecting the charges shall be furnished by the coast-station. The charges due to each ship engaged in relaying the radio-telegram shall be 4d. per word.

REIMBURSEMENTS.

11. When full transmission of a radio-telegram cannot be effected owing to the ship-station of destination having passed out of range, the unexpended charges shall be refunded.
