

SCHEDULE.

ALL that piece or parcel of land situate in the Upper Waitara Survey District, in the Provincial District of Taranaki, containing 75 (seventy-five) acres, more or less, and being the land known as Upper Waitara, Block I, Section 13.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honourable Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Member of the Royal Victorian Order, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies; and issued under the Seal of the said Dominion, at the Government House at Wellington, this eleventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. H. HERRIES,
Native Minister.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

Altering Regulations for Trout and Perch Fishing in the Wellington Acclimatization District.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this fourteenth day of September, 1914.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted in Part II of the Fisheries Act, 1908, that the Governor in Council may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations to have force and effect throughout New Zealand or only in such waters or places as are specified in the regulations:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and six, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 75, of the thirtieth day of the same month, regulations for the Wellington Acclimatization District were made providing, inter alia, that no lures or baits other than artificial fly or artificial minnow shall be used in any of the rivers or streams set forth in the proviso to clause five of the said regulations:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the fifth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 86, of the fourteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and nine, the Waikanae River and its tributaries were deleted from the list of rivers and streams mentioned in the Order in Council of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and six, and it is desirable to alter such regulations by adding to the list of rivers or streams in which such artificial lures or baits only shall be used, and to restate a part of the Waikanae River and its tributaries in such list:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby alter the proviso to clause five of the said regulations of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and six, by adding to the list of rivers or streams therein mentioned within which artificial fly or artificial minnow only shall be used as lures or baits the streams known as the Kahutarawa (Manawatu County), Koro Koro (Hutt County), and by reinstating the Waikanae River and its tributaries in such list; provided that the restriction shall apply to that part only of the Waikanae River above the railway-bridge.

By-Laws under the Harbours Act, 1908.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this fourteenth day of September, 1914.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the nineteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the ninth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight, respectively, by-laws were made, inter alia, governing the issue of licenses to vessels and persons plying for hire in harbours where there is no Harbour Board:

And whereas it is desirable to make the by-laws hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by sections nine and two hundred and seven of the Harbours Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that the by-laws hereinafter set forth shall, on and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, be in force in all harbours of the Dominion where there is no Harbour Board, that is to say.

BY-LAWS.

(1.) THE provisions of clauses 38 to 63, both inclusive, of the by-laws of the 5th day of June, 1883, and the by-law of the 19th day of December, 1907, hereinbefore referred to shall not apply to any steamer, nor to any vessel propelled by any mechanical power other than steam, nor to the master thereof so long as such vessel has a valid certificate of survey granted by the Marine Department under the provisions of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908.

(2.) THE Harbourmaster may at any time enter upon and inspect any vessel plying for hire, with a view to seeing that such vessel is fully manned and equipped as required by law, and does not carry more passengers than are allowed by such vessel's survey certificate to be carried.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
