LANDS FOR LEASE.

Conditions of Lease (abridged).

- The term of the lease shall be twenty-two years from the 1st January, 1914, at the rental tendered, with right of renewal for one further term of twenty-one years and a half,

Compensation for substantial improvements shall be allowed to the lessee at the expiration of the second term of the lease, as provided in section 263 of the Native Land Act, 1909.

2. Lessee to be entitled to a rebate of rental for the period intervening between the 1st January, 1914, and the date of the acceptance of his tender.

3. Residence to commence within four years in bush lands or swamp lands, and within one year in open or partly open lands and to be continuous for six years.

4. Lessee has no right to minerals without license, but he may use on the land any minerals for any agricultural, pastoral, household, road-making, or building purposes.

5. Every lessee shall bring into cultivation,—

(a.) Within one year from the date of his lease, not less than one-twentieth of the land leased by him;

(b.) Within two years from the date of his lease, not less than one-tenth of the land leased by him;

(c.) Within four years from the date of his lease, not less than one-fifth of the land leased by him—and shall, within six years from the date of his lease, in addition to the cultivation of one-fifth of the land, have put substantial improvements of a permanent character (as defined by the Land Act, 1908) on first-class land to the value of £1 for every acre of such land, and on second-class land to an amount equal to the net price of every acre of such land: Provided that in no case shall the additional improvements required on second-class land be more than 10s. per acre, or 2s. 6d. on third-class land.

6. (a.) Rent shall be payable half-yearly in advance.
