

ALTERATION IN REGULATIONS.

48. These regulations may be altered or amended from time to time as occasion may require. Due notice of such alteration or amendment to be given to employees.

BY-LAWS.

49. The Government Printer shall have power, subject to the Commissioner's approval, to make, alter, or amend by-laws, not being inconsistent with these regulations, for the internal regulation and discipline of the Department.

SUSPENSION.

50. In cases of suspension from duty, report shall be made to the Commissioner, with the necessary recommendation as to the confirmation or otherwise of such suspension.

STRANGERS VISITING THE OFFICE.

51. Persons wishing to interview any employee during working-hours shall first apply at the clerks' office, when, if the matter is urgent, the employee will be summoned to the waiting-room. Strangers are not allowed in the workrooms except by authority of the Government Printer or his deputy.

GENERAL.

52. The Government Printer may remove any member temporarily from the class in which he is entered, and such member shall whilst engaged in the higher class receive the wages due to members of that class; but on being returned to the class from which he was temporarily raised he shall receive the rate of pay belonging to that class. No member shall lose status or pay if temporarily removed to a lower class than that to which he belongs.

53. Suggestions that tend towards economy and efficient working of the different branches are invited from employees; these suggestions to be forwarded to the Government Printer, and if adopted will be duly recognized.

54. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, the General Regulations contained in Parts 1, 2, 5, 7, and 8 of the General Regulations made by the Public Service Commissioner shall apply to every officer and person employed in the Printing and Stationery Department.

As witness my hand, this seventeenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

D. ROBERTSON,
Public Service Commissioner.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1912, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, approves of the foregoing regulations.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

Approved in Council, this twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
