The land is situated some two miles and a half by formed dray-road from Weber Township, and twenty-seven miles from Dannevirke, and has a frontage on to the Akiteo Stream. With the exception of some 10 acres of grassed country in the south-eastern corner, the section comprises undulating and broken country, with mixed bush in the gullies and scrub on the hilltops and ridges. The bush contains birch, white-pine, matai, and totara of poor quality. The section is well watered. Elevation varies from 650 ft. to 950 ft. above sea-level. The soil is fair to medium, resting on a clay and papa formation.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.
