

the effect set forth in form No. 2 in the Schedule hereto shall be made upon the duplicate copy so retained as aforesaid: Provided that, before such personal service is dispensed with, proof shall first be given to the satisfaction of the receiving officer that reasonable efforts have been made to effect such personal service. Such receiving officer shall certify the fact at foot of any such special endorsement as aforesaid in the manner set forth in form No. 3 in the Schedule hereto.

6. Immediately after effecting or failing to effect service of any notice the receiving officer shall notify the fact of service or that service has not been effected (as the case may be), by telegram addressed to the transmitting officer, and shall require an acknowledgment of such notification by telegram forthwith, and shall also forward by post the duplicate copy of the notice with endorsements thereon in the forms Nos. 1 and 4 or forms Nos. 2 and 3 in the Schedule hereto, as the case may require, to the transmitting officer, by whom the same shall thereafter be treated as prescribed in clause 8 of these regulations.

7. The telegraphed copy from which the receiving officer caused the said duplicate copies to be made shall be separately posted by the receiving officer by the first convenient opportunity to the Chief Accountant at the General Post Office, and shall be separately filed by the said Chief Accountant for the period of one year from the date of receipt thereof, and shall then be destroyed in the same manner as other telegrams are periodically destroyed.

8. On receiving the telegraphic notification provided for in clause 6 hereof, the transmitting officer shall endorse on the original notice deposited with him for transmission a certificate to the effect contained in form No. 4 or form No. 5 in the Schedule hereto, as the case may be, and shall retain such original notice to await the arrival by post of the duplicate copy from the receiving officer.

9. On receiving such duplicate copy the transmitting officer shall satisfy himself of the correctness of the endorsements thereon, and shall thereupon deliver up the original notice bearing his own endorsement as hereinbefore provided to the person by whom such notice was deposited for transmission, and shall forward the duplicate copy received from the receiving officer to the Chief Accountant of the General Post Office, by whom it shall be separately filed for the period of one year from the date of receipt thereof, and shall then be destroyed in the same manner as other telegrams are periodically destroyed.

10. In the event of the person by whom the notice was deposited refusing to accept the same when offered to him by the transmitting officer the said notice shall forthwith be transmitted to the Chief Accountant of the General Post Office, and by him shall be safely kept and filed as a permanent record of his office.

11. A copy of the certificate endorsed by the transmitting officer on the original notice as aforesaid may be furnished by the transmitting officer to the person from whom such notice was received for transmission, on a copy thereof made by such person.

12. For every certificate or copy of certificate given by the transmitting officer hereunder the sum of 2s. 6d. shall be paid by the person requiring such certificate.

13. The ordinary telegraph rates shall be charged for transmitting all notices, but the transmitting officer may demand from the person presenting any notice for service a sum, by way of deposit, sufficient to cover the actual cost of delivery; the minimum charge to be so demanded shall be 5s.

14. Should the amount then paid be found insufficient to cover such expenses, the transmitting officer shall be entitled to demand payment of any balance outstanding prior to delivery of his certificate; but, if the amount of such deposit should exceed the actual expenses attending the service, or attempted service, of any such notice, the depositor shall be entitled to a refund to the extent of such excess.

15. Every officer who gives a certificate under the provisions of these regulations shall retain in his office for reference a duplicate of such certificate.
