Prohibiting the Export of Coal under certain Circumstances.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this fourth day of August, 1914.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, it is enacted that the Governor may by Order in Council gazetted prohibit the exportation of any goods which in his opinion may, if exported, be used for any purpose of war : And whereas in the opinion of the Governor coal, if exported, may be so used, and the exportation thereof ought to be so prohibited accordingly :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of coal from the said Dominion, save and except in cases where the Minister of Defence is satisfied that any coal to be exported is destined and required for the use of His Majesty's ships and authorizes the lading and exportation thereof accordingly, and save and except in cases where the Collector of Customs at any port is satisfied that the coal to be exported is required and intended for use as ships' stores by the exporting ship, not being a foreign ship of war, and authorizes the lading and exportation thereof accordingly.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
