WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1914.

Prohibiting the Export of certain Specified Goods.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of August, 1914.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, it is enacted that the Governor may by Order in Council gazetted prohibit the exportation of any goods which in his opinion may, if exported, be used for any purpose of war: And whereas in the opinion of the Governor the goods hereinafter specified, if exported, may be so used and the exportation thereof ought to be so prohibited accordingly :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation from the said Dominion, except to other parts of the British Empire for naval or military use, of the following goods, that is to say :—

- Acetone ;
- Aeroplanes, airships, balloons, of all kinds, and their component parts ;
- Animals, pack, saddle, and draught, suitable for use in war ;
- Arms, rifled, of all kinds, and their component parts ;
- Benzol ;
- Carbons required for searchlights ;
