Regulations in respect of Motions for Apportionment of Compensation-moneys under Section 9 of the Workers' Compensation Amendment Act, 1913.

1. WHERE any sum of money by way of compensation in respect of the death of a worker shall have been paid to the Public Trustee under the provisions of section 9, subsection (1), of the Workers' Compensation Amendment Act, 1913, and no judgment or order of the Court of Arbitration has been delivered or made disposing of or apportioning the same, an order of the Court may, upon motion in that behalf, be obtained apportioning the said sum among the dependants of the deceased.

2. If the Public Trustee shall move for an order under Rule 1 hereof the following rules shall apply:—

(a.) The Public Trustee shall file in the office of the Clerk of Awards at Wellington a notice of motion in the form prescribed in the Schedule hereto.

(b.) Such notice of motion shall be supported by an affidavit by the solicitor to the Public Trust Office, or by some other person having a knowledge of the facts, setting out the names of the dependants in full, and in the case of children the respective ages of such children, and their earnings (if any), together with such other facts as he shall deem relevant to the motion.

(c.) Such motion may be made ex parte, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of Awards to forward the file to the Court forthwith.

(d.) If the matter is one of simple apportionment, and the facts are clear, the Public Trustee may file with such notice of motion an order in terms of the motion for the signature of the Judge of the Court, together with so many copies thereof as shall be required, and upon such order having been made the file shall be returned to the Clerk of Awards.

3. If within one month after the receipt by the Public Trustee of such compensation-moneys application be made for an order of apportionment by any person claiming to be a dependant of the deceased worker, the following rules shall apply:—

(a.) The person so applying, or his solicitor, shall file in the office of the Clerk of Awards for the district in which the deceased worker resided immediately prior to his death a notice of motion, mutatis mutandis, in the said form, and shall file therewith an affidavit as to the facts in terms of Rule 2 (b) hereof, together with such further affidavits as he shall deem necessary, and shall endorse upon such notice of motion references to any decided cases which he may desire to cite in support thereof, and shall, at the time of filing such notice of motion and affidavit or affidavits, serve upon the nearest District Manager or Deputy Public Trustee a true copy of every document so filed.

(b.) Within fourteen days after the service upon such District Manager or Deputy Public Trustee of such notice of motion as aforesaid, the Public Trustee shall file in the office of the said Clerk of Awards a memorandum of his consent to such motion, or otherwise his objections thereto with legal argument thereon (if any), and such objections may be supported by such affidavit or affidavits as he shall deem necessary in support of such objections. It shall be the duty of the said Clerk of Awards to forward to the Court forthwith such memorandum and affidavit or affidavits (if any). The Court may make such order thereon as to it shall seem fit, and the file shall be returned to the Clerk of Awards.
