

ORDER XXXVI.

NOTICES FROM THE REGISTRY.

Any notice from the Registry may be either left at, or sent by post to, the address for service of the party to whom notice is to be given; and the time at which the notice if posted would be delivered in the ordinary course shall be considered the time of service thereof.

ORDER XXXVII.

FILING.

1. Documents shall be filed by leaving the same in the Registry, with a minute stating the nature of the document, and the date of filing it.

A form of minute on filing documents will be found in Appendix A, No. 60.

2. Any number of documents in the same cause may be filed with one and the same minute.

3. Save as otherwise provided by these Rules, before any document, except affidavits as to ship papers, bail bonds, documents issued from the Registry and minutes, is filed, a copy thereof shall be delivered to or served on the adverse party, if any, and no document, except as aforesaid, shall be filed without a certificate endorsed thereon, signed by the party filing the same, that a copy thereof has been so delivered or served upon such adverse party, if any.

ORDER XXXVIII.

TIME: ENLARGEMENT AND ABRIDGMENT.

1. In all matters in regard to the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding, the ordinary procedure in regard to time in force in the High Court or in the case of a Court in a British Possession the procedure in regard to time in force in that Court in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction shall prevail.

2. The Judge may, on the application of either party, enlarge or abridge the time prescribed by these Rules or forms, or by any order made under them, for doing any act or taking any proceeding, upon such terms as to him shall seem fit, and any such enlargement may be ordered, although the application for the same is not made until after the expiration of the time prescribed.

ORDER XXXIX.

MARSHAL.

1. The marshal shall execute by himself or his substitute all instruments issued from the Court which are addressed to him, and shall make returns thereof.

2. Whenever, by reason of distance or other sufficient cause, the marshal cannot conveniently execute any instrument in person, he shall employ some competent person as his substitute to execute the same.

3. Whenever in any port in His Majesty's Dominions there is no person appointed or employed to act as substitute of the marshal, the principal officer of Customs of the port shall be deemed to be the substitute of the marshal for the purposes of the execution and service of warrants and other instruments, the custody of prize, and for such other purposes as the President shall direct, and for such purposes shall be an officer of the Court.

4. Persons may be appointed or employed to act as substitutes of the marshal for the purposes mentioned in Rule 3 in the ports of any ally in war of His Majesty, or for the purpose of the services of any process out of the jurisdiction.

ORDER XL.
