GENERAL DESCRIPTION.

The Otway Settlement, formerly the property of Mr. L. H. Otway, and known as "Aylesbury," is situated about five miles and a half from the Waihou Railway-station by formed road, part metalled, and about six miles and a half from Te Aroha Town by formed road, part metalled and part sanded. The Elstow Public School is two miles and a half away, and the Te Aroha Dairy Company has a creamery erected and working on the south-east corner of the estate. The property is bounded on the south and south-east by the Waitoa River, which is navigable for launches from the Thames right up to the estate. The roads throughout are good. The general quality of the land is fair, and the majority of the sections are surface watered. Most of the boundaries are either fenced or have boundary drains. The soil, as a rule, is a light sandy loam on a clay subsoil. The aspect is good, and the country throughout is nearly level. The unimproved portions of the estate, as a rule, will require draining. An outfall drain runs into the Waitoa River, and there is another large outfall drain a little to the north of the settlement.

Full particulars may be ascertained and plans obtained at this office.
