Contraband of War.

THE following Proclamation by His Majesty the King is published by His Excellency the Governor for the information of the public.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

Revising the List of Articles to be treated as Contraband of War.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS on the twenty-third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, We did issue Our Royal Proclamation specifying the articles which it was Our intention to treat as contraband during the continuance of hostilities or until We did give further public notice: And whereas on the eleventh day of March and on the twenty-seventh day of May and on the twentieth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, We did by Our Royal Proclamations of those dates make certain additions to the list of articles to be treated as contraband of war: And whereas it is expedient to make certain further additions to and amendments in the said lists:

Now, therefore, We do hereby declare, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, that the lists of contraband contained in the Schedules to Our Royal Proclamation of the twenty-third day of December, as subsequently amended by Our Proclamations of the eleventh day of March and of the twenty-seventh day of May and of the twentieth day of August aforementioned, are hereby withdrawn, and that in lieu thereof during the continuance of the war or until We do give further public notice the articles enumerated in Schedule I hereto will be treated as absolute contraband, and the articles enumerated in Schedule II hereto will be treated as conditional contraband.
