

Prohibiting the Export of Mutton, Beef, and Tinned Meat except to United Kingdom or other Specified Place.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this twenty-third day of February, 1915.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest: And whereas in the opinion of the Governor it is necessary in the public interest that the exportation of mutton, beef, and tinned meat, except as hereinafter specified, should be prohibited :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of frozen mutton or lamb, chilled or frozen beef, and tinned meat from the said Dominion, save and except to ports in the United Kingdom, and save and except where in the case of any other specified port or place the Minister of Customs consents to the exportation to that port or place of any specified quantity of frozen mutton or lamb, chilled or frozen beef, or tinned meat in a specified ship, and authorizes the lading and exportation thereof accordingly.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

HIS Excellency the Governor has it in command from His Majesty the King to publish the following Proclamation for the information of the public.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

Relating to Trading with the Enemy.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS as a result of the present War certain territory forming part of the territory of an enemy country is or may be in the effective military occupation of Us or Our Allies or of a neutral state (in this Proclamation referred to as "territory in friendly occupation"), and certain territory forming part of Our territory or of that of an allied or neutral State is or may be in the effective military occupation of an enemy (in this Proclamation referred to as "territory in hostile occupation") :

And whereas it is expedient in Our interest and in that of Our Allies that the Proclamations relating to trading with the enemy should apply to territory in friendly occupation as they apply to Our territory or that of Our Allies, and should apply to territory in hostile occupation as they apply to an enemy country :

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation declaring and it is hereby declared as follows :—

1. The Proclamations for the time being in force relating to trading with the enemy shall apply to territory in friendly occupation as they apply to Our territory or that of Our Allies, and to territory in hostile occupation as they apply to an enemy country.
