14. The bond required by section 11 of the said Act to be given by the person claiming any bounty in respect of pig-iron, puddled bar iron, or steel may be in accordance with the following form :—

Government of New Zealand.

The Iron and Steel Industries Act, 1914.

BOND UNDER SECTION 11.

Know all men by these presents that I, [Name in full], of [Address], in the Dominion of New Zealand, [Occupation], am held and firmly bound in the sum of [Insert sum fixed by Minister], to be paid to the Minister of Mines of the said Dominion, for which payment I bind myself and my heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns.

Sealed with my seal.

Dated the _____ day of _____, 19 _____.

Whereas the said [Name in full] is a person claiming bounty under the Iron and Steel Industries Act, 1914, in respect of [pig-iron, puddled bar iron, or steel, as the case requires], manufactured at [Name of place where goods manufactured] :

And whereas by section 11 of the said Act every person claiming bounty as aforesaid is required to give his bond to the Minister of Mines as in that section mentioned :

Now, the condition of the above-written bond is such that if the said [Name in full], his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, shall transfer to the Crown all lands, buildings, plant, machinery, and equipment of any kind used in or in connection with the manufacture of the goods, if so required by the Governor at any time after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight (such transfer to be in consideration of fair compensation for the property transferred, to be assessed in case of dispute in the manner prescribed by the Public Works Act, 1908, in the case of land taken for public works, but in no case shall goodwill enter as a factor when calculating such compensation), then the above-written bond to be void and of no effect, but otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

[Signature of person giving bond.]

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the said [Name in full of person giving bond], in the presence of [Witness to sign here, and insert his address and occupation].
