Apportionment of Representation and Election of Representatives on the Waikato and Taumarunui Hospital and Charitable Aid Boards.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this twelfth day of March, 1915.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the Taumarunui Hospital District Act, 1914, the Taumarunui Hospital District was constituted: And whereas by the said Act it is enacted that the Board of the said hospital district shall consist of such number of representatives of the contributory districts within the hospital district as the Governor by Order in Council from time to time determines, and that the first election of members of the said Board shall be held on such day as the Governor by Order in Council appoints, and that the Governor may make all such provisions as are deemed necessary for the purposes of that election: And whereas by reason of the creation of the Taumarunui Hospital District, and by reason of changes in the population and value of the rateable property in the Waikato Hospital District, it is desirable to revise the apportionment of representation of contributory districts within the Waikato Hospital District:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the aforesaid Act, and also by the Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1909, doth hereby determine that the number of representatives of each contributory district within the aforesaid hospital districts of Taumarunui and Waikato shall be as set forth in the Schedule hereto, and the principal authority of the combined districts shall be that indicated by (p) in the said Schedule, and that the first election of the representatives to the Taumarunui Hospital and Charitable Aid Board and of a representative to the Waikato Hospital and Charitable Aid Board for the combined district of Frankton, Ngaruawahia, and Te Awamutu Town Districts shall be held on Saturday, the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen; and doth hereby direct that the three members at present representing the combined districts of Waikato County and Huntly Town District shall decide among themselves which member shall retire from the Waikato Hospital and Charitable Aid Board as from the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and failing agreement shall decide by lot in manner determined by the Board, and none of these representatives shall thereafter be entitled to speak or vote at a Board meeting or act in any capacity as a member of the Board until the necessary reduction is made: And it is further directed that until the date of the next ordinary general election of members of the local authority or, in the case of combined districts, of the principal local authority the two members at present representing the combined district of Waipa County, Frankton Borough, and Ngaruawahia and Te Awamutu Town Districts shall continue to represent the Waipa County; and the member at present representing the combined district of Matamata and Rotorua Counties shall continue to represent the Matamata County; and the members at present representing the combined district of Waitomo and Ohura Counties and the Te Kuiti Borough shall continue to represent the combined district of Waitomo County and the Te Kuiti Borough; and the member at present representing the Rotorua Town District shall continue to represent the combined district of Rotorua Town and County, unless seats of the above-mentioned representatives become earlier vacant under section twenty of the Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1909; and the remaining members of the Waikato Hospital and Charitable Aid Board shall continue to hold office until the appointment of successors under the Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, with the exception of the present member for the combined district of Kaitieke County and Taumarunui Borough, who shall cease to hold office on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen: And it is hereby further
