Additional Regulations under the Mining Act, 1908, and its Amendments.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

IN exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Mining Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations; and doth also order that the regulations hereby made shall come into operation from the date of the gazetting hereof.

REGULATIONS.

1. EVERY application for protection under section 33 of the Mining Amendment Act, 1914, shall be filed in the Warden's Court nearest to the place where the mining privilege is situate, addressed to the Minister of Mines.

2. The Warden shall hear the application and all objections thereto in the same manner in all respects as if the same were an application to the Warden under section 165 of the Mining Act, 1908, and Regulation No. 33. And the provisions of the said section and regulation shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such application.

3. After hearing the evidence for the applicant and the objectors (if any) the Warden shall forward a copy of the evidence taken to the Minister, with his recommendation on the application, and the Minister, in his discretion, may grant the application for the period applied for or for any lesser period, or he may refuse the application.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

W. FRASER,
Minister of Mines.

Lands temporarily reserved in the Auckland, Hawke's Bay, Taranaki, Wellington, and Otago Land Districts.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

WHEREAS by the three-hundred-and-twenty-first section of the Land Act, 1908, it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, either by general or particular description, and whether the same has been surveyed or not, reserve from sale temporarily, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned:

And whereas by the sixty-ninth section of the Land for Settlements Act, 1908, it is further provided that the Governor may from time to time, as he thinks fit, set aside reserves for any specified public purpose out of land acquired under the last-mentioned Act, provided that no land so acquired shall be set aside for endowments:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the said Acts, do hereby temporarily reserve from sale the lands described in the Schedule hereunder written, for the purposes in the said Schedule specified at the end of the respective descriptions of the lands so intended to be temporarily reserved.
