

the Attorney-General may by notice in the Gazette prohibit that company, firm, or person from continuing to carry on business in New Zealand under the said name, description, or representation after a date to be specified in the notice.

3. After the date specified in such notice the company, firm, or person therein referred to shall not carry on business in New Zealand under the name, description, or representation so specified in the notice, or under any other name, description, or representation which is a colourable imitation thereof or is otherwise equivalent thereto; and no person shall act as the agent or servant of that company, firm, or person, or as a partner in that firm, in respect of the carrying-on of business in manner aforesaid.

4. Acts done merely for the purpose of winding up or discontinuing the business of the company, firm, or person shall not be deemed to be the carrying-on of business within the meaning of the foregoing regulations.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
