Prohibiting the Importation of Goods manufactured or produced in Enemy Territory or exported therefrom.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this twenty-sixth day of September, 1916.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-six of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section two of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Amendment Act, 1915, it is enacted that the Governor may by Order in Council prohibit the importation into New Zealand of any goods the prohibition of the importation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest: And whereas in the opinion of the Governor the prohibition of the importation of the goods hereinafter referred to is necessary in the public interest:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority conferred upon him by the Acts aforesaid, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the importation into New Zealand, save with the consent of the Minister of Customs, of any goods which, whether before or after the commencement of the present war, have been manufactured or produced in or exported from any place which at the date of this Order in Council is enemy territory; and doth hereby declare that the term "enemy territory" includes all territory in the military occupation of an enemy State, but does not include territory in the military occupation of His Majesty; and doth hereby further declare that goods shall be deemed to be manufactured or produced in enemy territory if not less than one-fourth of the fair market value thereof as estimated in accordance with the provisions of the Customs Act, 1913, with respect to goods liable to ad valorem duty has its source in enemy territory.

J. F. ANDREWS,
 Clerk in the Executive Council.
