

the transferee, and no such transfer shall have any force or affect until the same has been sanctioned by the Council and a memorandum thereof under the hands of the County Chairman and Clerk has been endorsed on the license. A fee of five shillings shall be payable to the Council on every such transfer.

11. In case the keeper of any billiard-room shall die at any time during the currency of his license, or shall at any time during the currency thereof (through sickness, insanity, or otherwise) become incapable of controlling and managing his billiard-room, it shall be lawful for the County Clerk, with the approval of the Inspector, to appoint some respectable person to take temporary charge of the billiard-room, and to conduct and manage the same for the benefit of the keeper or his estate, but in such case a formal application for a transfer of the license shall be made as speedily as possible. If the keeper be dead, the application may be signed by his personal representatives, or by his widow or next-of-kin if no such representatives have been appointed.

12. Every keeper of a billiard-room—

- (a.) Shall cause the billiard-room, and every way, passage, or staircase leading thereto, to be maintained in good and clean order and condition, and shall provide and maintain in the like order and condition all proper sanitary conveniences for the use of his customers;
- (b.) Shall keep the billiard-room closed during the "closing-hours for licensed premises" as the same are defined by section 189 of the Licensing Act, 1908; and shall not permit or suffer any of the games mentioned or referred to in clause 1 hereof to be played in the billiard-room at any time when the same is or should be closed in accordance with the foregoing provision;
- (c.) Shall permit any Inspector appointed under this by-law, and every constable or other police officer, to have at all times free access and entry to and into the billiard-room and every part thereof, and to and into all outbuildings and other premises appurtenant thereto.
- (d.) Shall use his best endeavours to prevent any drunken person from entering the billiard-room, and shall eject therefrom (using such force as may be necessary for the purpose) any drunken person who has gained admittance thereto, as well as every person who shall be found gambling or betting, or using improper language, or behaving himself improperly therein.

13. Every keeper who by himself, his assistants or servants, commits a breach of any provision contained in this by-law, or causes or permits or suffers any such breach to be committed, and every person who aids or abets in or connives at or is privy to the commission of any such breach, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this by-law, and shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty of five pounds (£5).

14. If any keeper shall be convicted of an offence against this by-law, or shall be guilty of any crime or serious misconduct, his license may be cancelled or suspended at the pleasure of the Council.

15. This by-law shall not apply to billiard-rooms situate in premises for the time being licensed under the Licensing Act, 1908.

16. A copy of this by-law, printed in large type, shall be posted in every billiard-room in such a position as to be clearly and distinctly visible to and legible by every person entering the room.
