Military Service Act, 1916.—Regulations as to Appeals to Military Service Boards.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this tenth day of October, 1916.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

I, ARTHUR WILLIAM DE BRITO SAVILE, Earl of Liverpool, Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, do hereby, in pursuance of the authority conferred upon me by the Military Service Act, 1916, make the following regulations with respect to appeals to the Military Service Boards constituted under that Act.

REGULATIONS.

1. On the hearing of appeals the Crown may be represented by any person appointed in that behalf by the Minister of Defence either generally or with respect to any class of appeals or with respect to any particular appeal. The representative of the Crown is hereinafter referred to as the Military Representative.

2. The Military Representative at the hearing of an appeal shall have a right to be heard in opposition thereto, to produce evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses.

3. The Chairman of a Military Service Board shall give to the Commandant such reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing of an appeal as may be sufficient to afford to a Military Representative a reasonable opportunity of being present at the hearing.

4. An appellant may, on the hearing of his appeal, be represented by a barrister or solicitor or, with the leave of the Board, by any other person.
